PREMIER ALEXEI KOSYGIN AND PRESIDENT JOHNSON
As they meet in Glassboro, N. J.

Smiles Begin Summit Talks

GLASSBORO, N.J. (UPI) — President Johnson and Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin spent the first two hours and three minutes of their "Big Two" summit conference today talking man-to-man and alone in the summer quiet of a small New Jersey college president's home.

Only an interpreter for each was present as Johnson and Kosygin privately explored such war-and-peace issues as the Middle East, Vietnam, ways of curbing the spread of nuclear weaponry and bettering East-West relations.

The President and the Premier met each other for the first time in friendly fashion before a throng of newsmen, photographers and residents of Glassboro, a college community of 11,600 halfway between New York City and Washington.

Johnson and Kosygin met and exchanged handclasps and pleasantries about the President's new grandson at 11:21 a.m. EDT outside Hollybush, the home of the president of Glassboro State College, Dr. Thomas E. Robinson.

The two then went to the den of the house to begin their formal talks at 11:27 A.M. EDT with none of their top advisers present. They were closeted together until 1:30 P.M. EDT when they emerged for lunch and further discussions with the U.S. and Soviet delegations on hand to participate. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko were closeted in another room, during the morning.

Seated at a small end table with their interpreters along side, Johnson and Kosygin sized up each other in the first meeting of a U.S. President and Soviet chief of state since 1961.

Kosygin initially wanted to confine the Summit meeting to the Middle East crisis — the situation which brought him to New York for the U.N. General Assembly session.

But it was learned just before the two were closeted together

Romania Chief Rebuffs Russ On Mideast

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Breaking sharply with the Soviet Union, Communist Romania called today for peace negotiations between Israel and its Arab neighbors and promised to assist in bringing about a Middle East settlement based on peaceful coexistence.

Romanian Premier Ion Gheorghe Maurer told the emergency session of the General Assembly that "negotiations and agreements" are the way to a peaceful, reasonable and lasting settlement.

The assembly earlier had heard Swedish Ambassador Sverker Astrom urge a big power commitment to respect the independence and integrity of all Middle East countries, and to pledge themselves to seek no military advantage or to make any contribution to a Middle East arm race.

Both Maurer and Astrom asserted the withdrawal of Israeli troops from recently occupied Arab territory was an essential condition for a lasting settlement, but neither favored the Soviet-sponsored resolution demanding condemnation of Israel.

Driver Error Wreaks Havoc In San Rafael

Runaway Auto Acts Like Tank, Injures Three

Three persons were injured, a building demolished and a trail of cars wrecked in downtown San Rafael last night when an 83-year-old motorist pressed the accelerator pedal of his car instead of the brake, police reported today.

The runaway car roared out of Brooks Street and across the Second Street intersection, plunged into an office building — injuring or scattering its five occupants — and finally came to rest 300 feet away after crashing into parked vehicles.

HOW IT STARTED

It all began at 5:48 p.m., said police, when Matt A. Graham of 68 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, former Golden Gate Bridge director and now self employed as an insurance broker, was asked to move his parked car two feet.

The car was blocking the exit from a garage of the Community Recreation Center in Brooks Street.

According to witness Leon J. Netboy of San Rafael, the engine of Graham's car suddenly raced and the vehicle lurched forward, hitting and spinning around a car parked 10 feet ahead.

Graham's car continued fast across Second Street, mounted the curb and sideswiped the office of Wade's Auto Polishing. It went on to crash into three cars parked outside.

CARRIED BY CAR

Inside the office hut immediately before the impact were five people, including the three who were injured, Mavis Wade, 45, of 108 Shaver Street, San Rafael; Mildred M. Wade, 25, and Victor Broden, 30, both

A House Cat Saves Woman In Home Fire

An ordinary house cat named Peyote saved the life of a Fairfax woman in a fire that destroyed her home yesterday.

Diane Haskett, 21, said she was awakened by the animal at 9 a.m. to find her living room at 106 Spruce Road engulfed in flame. She was able to escape through the back door of the smoke-filled building, but the home and all her personal belongings were destroyed.

Fairfax Fire Chief Charles M. Thornton said the fire apparently started in the bedroom of a downstairs apartment occupied by Jack Levine.

Levine, who had left for work earlier, told firemen he often smokes in bed and had had a cigarette before leaving at 6:30 a.m.

Thornton said the alarm was turned in by a neighbor but firemen arrived too late to save the building, owned by Harry Fong of 45 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax. Thornton estimated damage at $8,500.

Miss Haskett is staying with her neighbor, Mrs. Alberta Nelson of 112 Spruce Road, with her only possession — the clothing she was wearing and the calico cat that saved her from certain death.

AFTERMATH — Little remained of the office of Wade's Auto Polishing in Second Street, San Rafael last night after it was hit by a runaway car. Three of the five occupants of the building were injured—two of them seriously.

Senate Censures Dodd Funds Use

Nine-Day Wrangle Resolved

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate censured Sen. Thomas J. Dodd today for personal use of political funds but rejected a second charge that he had double billed the Senate and private groups for travel expenses.

WASHINGTON (UPI)— The Senate censured Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., today on charges of converting political donations to personal use.

The vote was 92 to 5 with Dodd recorded as voting No.

The Senate held that Dodd's conduct "is contrary to accepted morals, derogates from the public trust expected of a senator, and tends to bring the Senate into dishonor and disrepute."

SIXTH TIME

It was only the sixth time in history that the Senate had censured or condemned one of its own. The last was Sen. Joseph McCarthy, R-Wis., in 1954.

The vote climaxed nine days of debate in the Senate, and ended for Dodd the agony of public debate over his ethics.

Shortly before the parliamentary logjam was broken for the final vote, the Senate rejected another effort to weaken the punishment recommended by its Ethics committee.

DODD NOT OUSTED

The censure will have little practical effect in the Senate. Dodd retains his seat and all privileges. But the move is the harshest action the Senate can take against one of its members short of expulsion.

The censure vote was on the charge that Dodd used more than $116,000 of political contributions for his personal expenses. His supporters succeeded in getting a separate vote on the lesser charge of double-

Hippies Arrested In Inverness Freed

The dozen hippies accused of being in an Inverness Mesa house last March 9 where marijuana was being used were acquitted today by Judge Hadden W. Roth of Marin Municipal Court.

The shaggy-haired, oddly-dressed group met the "not guilty" verdict with cheers, embraces, and kisses for one another.

Judge Roth, who based his decision mainly on a legislative amendment to the Health and Safety Code section under which they were accused, and on a State District Court of Appeals ruling. He also declined admissibility of a statement by one of the defendants on grounds that it violated recent rulings on proper advising of suspects of their rights to remain silent.

Acquitted were Frank M. Tedesco, Kathleen McMahon, Lawrence Dana Rau, Michael W. Raabe, Rebecca Marsolan, and Bright Smith, all aged 20; Lonnie Stewart Cox, 22; Jean Berkholt, 26; Nancy Lynn Wallmark and Robert A. Menges, both 21; and Bruce Michael Fein and William J. Stabile, both 23.

Michael Anthony, deputy district attorney who prosecuted, said no decision on whether to prosecute four other hippies also named in the joint complaint but who failed to appear for trial will immediately be made.

Judge Roth said a law originally concerning a suspect's presence in a place where narcotics were being or had been used has been amended to a "catch them in the act" requirement and that the prosecution failed to prove the defendants

Tomales Sets Third School Bonds Ballot

Trustees of the Tomales Joint Union High School District last night voted unanimously for a third try at passage of a bond issue to finance construction of a new school.

They set the election from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sept 19.

This time the bonds will be for $1,100,000, said Supt. Anthony Matulich. The last two times the proposition has been for $900,000 in bonds. This is due to the increased cost of construction and a higher assessed valuation in the Marin County portion of the district, Matulich said.

The voters turned down the bonds on June 6 by 1,002 yes and 503 no. They also turned them down on Feb. 28, 835 yes to 445 no. Both elections were so close that the trustees felt a third try was warranted.

With the increase in assessed valuation in the district, it can now bond up to $1,153,000, Matulich said. The district now has $155,000 in outstanding bonds, so it could sell up to $988,000, he said.

The board last night named Mrs. Jean Adams and Roy Parks to work with the faculty study committee on the staff satisfaction survey and set 8 p.m., July 6 for a special meeting with Matulich to take up the survey.

Copters Collide, Killing 20 Marines, Injuring 15

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C. (UPI)—Two Marine helicopters carrying office workers on "routine brush-up exercises" today collided in flight and plunged in flames to the ground, killing at least 20 Marines and injuring 15 more.

An HU1E Huey copter, practicing "touch-and-go" landings, darted off the ground and slammed into the belly of an enormous Sea Stallion helicopter, carrying 33 persons.

There were two aboard the Huey. A Marine official said all those involved were members of Marine Aircraft Group 26 of the Second Marine Air Wing. All those aboard the Sea Stallion, biggest and fastest helicopter in the West, were mechanics and office personnel on a "routine brushup course."

They collided about 350 feet off the ground. The Huey crashed and witnesses said it "looked like it completely burned up in 20 seconds."

The Sea Stallion tumbled down 350 feet away.

Casualties were rushed to hospitals at Camp LeJeune and New River Marine Air Facility, where the crash occurred. The facility is on the northern edge of the sprawling Marine base, near Jacksonville, N. C.

The "brushup course," according to Capt. Donald Dinwiddie, consisted of "boarding and disembarking from a helicopter and assault on a fortified position."

Rafferty Not Likely To Run, Patrick Says

Dr. Max Rafferty is not likely to run for the U.S. Senate, in the opinion of William Penn Patrick, San Rafael cosmetics manufacturer.

"I don't think Dr. Rafferty will run," Patrick said this morning, as he pushed ahead with plans for his own candidacy.

Papers of incorporation were filed in Sacramento yesterday for the Citizens for Patrick Committee.

Patrick said he authorized filing of the incorporation papers but "this does not mean I am a candidate."

"It just means that a group of people in California are trying to build a base of support for me and to encourage me to run for the U.S. Senate in 1968 on the Republican ticket."

If Patrick becomes a candidate, he would oppose Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel in the GOP primary.

Joseph Shell, an associate of Patrick in Holiday Magic, is chairman of the Citizens for Patrick Committee. Other officers are Berton Speer of Eureka, vice chairman; D. C. Parks of Bakerfield, treasurer; and Grace Matley of Los Angeles, secretary.

Patrick was unsuccessful candidate for the GOP nomination for governor last year. Shell, former Los Angeles oilman and former assemblyman, lost in 1962 to Richard M. Nixon in the Republican gubernatorial primary.

Meredith To Resume Lone Trek

HERNANDO, Miss. (UPI)—The "loner" of the civil rights movement, James H. Meredith, sets out tomorrow to resume a 210-mile march that was abruptly halted last year when he was hit by sniper fire.

Meredith, who broke the racial barrier at the University of Mississippi, says his purpose remains the same: "To challenge, expose and extinguish that all-pervasive fear that permeates the existence of the Negro."

He said he would be unarmed.

Meredith estimates the hike from Hernando to the capitol at Jackson will take about 10 days, and he said any able-bodied man of 16 years of age or older was welcome to join him.

Meredith had four companions with him and was jauntily twirling a swagger stick on June 6, 1966, when a sniper's shotgun wounded him.

After Meredith was wounded, Dr. Martin Luther King and other top civil rights leaders rushed in to take over the march, and by the time the procession finally trooped into Jackson two weeks later it had become the largest civil rights demonstration of the year—a force 15,000 strong, complete with name entertainers

But Meredith wasn't pleased. "what happened after I was shot happened because I was shot. What I originally started didn't have anything to do with what happened later," he explained.

Fire District Adopts Budget

Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District commissioners last night approved a final $125,000 budget for fiscal 1968, reported Chairman Milton L. Stannard.

Some increase may be necessary in the current property tax rate of 66 cents per $100 assessed valuation, said Chief Carl O. Heynen. District policy is to keep the rate below 70 cents, he said.

The budget, up from the current $107,300, includes salary increases averaging 5 per cent for nine firemen, at a cost of $10,000.

Labor Dispute Shuts Peninsula Restaurants

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — Because of a labor dispute, owners padlocked most of the restaurants on the San Francisco Peninsula yesterday, including those at International Airport.

The airport dining room and two coffee shops were shut down by Interstate Hosts, Inc., although four snack bars and two cocktail lounges remained open.

Interstate Hosts, taking part in a lockout called by San Mateo County's Restaurant-Hotel Owners Association, said it was flying in personnel from other cities in an effort to help airborne travelers.

Association spokesmen said most of the 110 eating establishments owned by its members were closed in a labor contract dispute with the AFL-CIO Bartenders and Culinary Workers Union.

A contract expired Dec. 31 but was extended until Tuesday when waitresses picketed the Hyatt House Hotel in Burlingame, claiming contract violations.

The union is asking a first-year pay boost of 7 per cent for those who get tips and 10 per cent for those who don't.

Hungary now has 118,000 autos, four times the total in 1960.

'Black Power' Trio Held In Atlanta Jail

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Stokely Carmichael, the outspoken "black power" advocate, and two of his associates were jailed overnight under $1,000 appeal bonds after their convictions yesterday of refusing to obey a police order to "move on" in racially troubled Dixie Hills.

Attorney Howard Moore, representing the three, said he considered the bonds "a little out of line" with the $53 fine or 50 days in jail meted to each by Municipal Judge T. C. Little after he convicted them under a loitering statute.

The trio was arrested last weekend in the predominantly Negro apartment complex. The arrests were followed by four nights of violence in which one person was killed and several injured. It was climaxed by outbursts of gunfire Tuesday night.

Dixie Hills was calm for the second straight night as youth corps volunteers strolled through the area as a precaution and a second night of showers cooled the area.

Mayor Ivan Allen suspended a midnight to 6 a.m. curfew after the first night of peace.

City workmen and community volunteers worked on a clean-up drive designed to eliminate many of the targets of Negro complaints.

Carmichael testified that he was returning from a swimming trip at a nearby park with Donald Stone and Ernest Stephens, the other two charged with loitering, when he was arrested.

10 Killed In Road Collision

HARDEEVILLE, S.C. (AP)—Ten persons, including five members of one family, were killed early today when their station wagon collided with an asphalt truck south of Hardeeville near the southern tip of South Carolina.

There were no survivors in the station wagon. All the victims were from Savannah, Ga.

The station wagon was so mangled that it was impossible to determine at first how many persons were in the vehicle.

CELIBACY RULES UPHELD BY POPE

Ban On Priestly Marriages Defended As 'Shining Gem' Preserved By The Church

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope Paul VI, voicing "great pain" over criticism and defections in the rank of the clergy, said today the law of priestly celibacy is as good and necessary as ever in the 20th Century world.

The pontiff strongly defended celibacy "which the church has preserved for centuries like a shining gem" in an encyclical letter addressed to the world's Roman Catholic bishops.

'NATURAL DESIRE'

The 9,500-word document, entitled "sacerdotalis coelibatus" (priestly celibacy), spoke understandingly of the struggle priests must undergo to repress "the natural and legitimate desire to love a woman." But it said an unmarried state makes the priest closer to Christ and a better man.

The document, carefully listed current theological, historical and psychological arguments against celibacy and answered each of them in detail.

He said celibacy by priests retains its full value even in our time, marked by profound change in mentality and structures."

'NEW FERMENTS'

"But in the climate of the new ferments, a tendency and indeed an express will has emerged to urge the church to reappraise this characteristic institution of hers, which according to some has become hard and almost impossible to observe in our times and in our world."

"This state of affairs is troubling consciences, perplexing some priests and young aspirants to the priesthood. It is a cause of alarm in many of the faithful," the Pope said.

He said this forced him to speak out to give "new luster and strength" to the celibacy law, as he promised the Ecumenical Council when he barred it from debating the issue.

The pontiff expressed "deep sorrow" over the many cases of Roman Catholic priests who have renounced the priesthood for the sake of married life.

An estimated 4,000 such cases are currently being reviewed by a special papal commission, and a number of cases involving such prominent clergymen as British theologian Father Charles Davis have received wide publicity.

"If these priests know how much sorrow, dishonor and unrest they bring to the holy church of God, if they reflected on the seriousness and beauty of their obligations and on the dangers on which they are exposed in this life and in the next, there would be greater care and reflection in their decisions, they would pray more assiduously, and would show greater courage and logic in forestalling the causes of their spiritual and moral collapse," Pope Paul said.

Marin Lawmakers Seek Headlands Cash

Marin's two legislators fought yesterday in Sacramento to salvage a $790,000 appropriation in the state budget for purchase of 320 acres of land for Marin Headlands State Park.

Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley made their pitch before a two-house conference committee locked in a closed meeting to work out a compromise budget.

The committee gave no immediate decision, but both McCarthy and Bagley said they are "hopeful" that the Marin Headlands funding would be approved.

Marin legislators told the committee that the purchase of 320 acres of surplus military land in the Kirby Cove area was authorized in 1965, and $249,000 approved for the purchase. The federal government latter came up with a reappraisal, which put the price at $790,000. (These prices represent 50 per cent of the market value.)

"The federal government has imposed a deadline on purchase of this property, and the state must exercise first option on this property by July 1—eight days from now," Senator McCarthy told the committee. "I can only say that if the state had an opportunity to obtain land on the private market at 50 per cent of market value, there would be no hesitation. There should be no hesitation now!"

"We are not seeking an augumentation or appropriation for additional land," Bagley argued. "The purchase was authorized two years ago. We are simply asking that the authorization, already made, be funded."

Jury Delivers Guilty Verdict On Grand Theft

A Marin Superior Court jury late yesterday convicted James N. Litteral, 21, of second degree burglary and grand theft in the April 26 breakin of the home of Jules L. Gall, 920 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley.

Judge Harold J. Haley scheduled sentence on both counts for 3:30 p.m. July 13.

Officers said about $7,000 in goods from the house was taken, but $5,000 worth was later recovered. Trial for Litteral, of 9½ Taylor Street, San Rafael, began June 14. He was defended by Jerome Durham, public defender.

Joshua Thomas, deputy district attorney, prosecuted.

Litteral now faces a new felony complaint of burglary March 14 of the Marin County Humane Society offices at 402 Third Street, San Rafael. The complaint was filed Monday.

Phone Hike Would Bring Push Buttons

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Push button calling to replace dialing is in the works if Pacific Telephone Co. gains a $181 million-a-year rate increase.

The company told the State Public Utilities Commission yesterday that this is among 20 improvements planned if the boost is granted.

Board Chops Raises For Department Heads

The Marin County Board of supervisors, in a rash of split votes, today wiped out proposed token raises for all but one of the eight department heads who received substantial pay boosts in January.

Exception was the salary of Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, director of public health, who won a boost of $25 monthly to $1,600 because the board felt her salary was below the job pay in California counties comparable to Marin.

What was expected to be a routine session of approving minor pay hikes recommended by administrator Alan Bruce turned into 90 minutes of debate in which the supervisors split up repeatedly and, in one case reversed their position after granting one pay hike.

After the board had granted Public Works Director Donald R. Frost an increase of $34 monthly to $1,700, Supervisor Peter H. Behr later persuaded the board to rescind it.

Affected were the proposed pay hikes ranging from $10 to $50 for Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, Miss Betty L. Presley, director of Public Social Services; Probation Officer Walter R. Busher, Pierre W. Joske, director of parks and recreation, Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, and Medical Director Michael D. Scholl, besides that for Frost.

The board followed Bruce's recommendation for department heads who did not get raises in January. Only exception was Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of community mental health services. The board unanimously voted to hold this at $1,625 a month. Bruce recommended $1,700.

Raises ranging from $50 to $120 were granted Public Defender Jerome C. Durham, Librarian Virginia Keating, J Mansfield Lewis, director of communications, and Veterans' Service Officer James Burdick. None of the latter received raises in January.

of San Francisco.

The Wades were injured inside, but Broden rushed outside and was picked up on the fender of Graham's car and carried 75 feet before falling off.

John H. Wade, 26, husband of Mildred, escaped injury only by leaping over a parked car, out of the path of the oncoming vehicle.

Mildred Wade was in fair condition today in Marin General Hospital with concussion and multiple cuts and bruises. Broden was fair with a fractured left leg, concussion, a cut scalp and a back injury. Mavis Wade was treated for cuts and bruises.

Graham, and the occupant of the first car he hit, John Mani, 70, of 378 Butterfield Road, Sleepy Hollow, were reported uninjured. Police said no citations were being issued.

Dog Is Bitten By Rabid Skunk

For the third time this year, a rabid animal has been killed near residential districts in Marin, county health officials disclosed today.

County Health Officer Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht said rabis tests proved positive yesterday on a skunk killed June 20 by a dog in Fairfax. She said the dog, belonging to Douglas Shaffer of 89 Gregory Drive, was bitten in the fight which occurred on a nearby hill and is being held for observation.

Two rabid animals were killed within a five day period earlier this spring — another skunk in Fairfax May 10 and a fox in Novato May 12.

Bids Not Accepted On Sewer Facility

Because all six bids for the construction on the remodeling of the Novato sewer pumping station were much higher than the engineer's estimate, the Novato Sanitary District board last night made no award of contract and postponed decision until July 5.

Kirkwood-Bly Inc. of Santa Rosa with a bid of $249,000 was the apparent low bidder. The engineer's estimate for the project was $200,000.

Leydecker Home

Reagan Gets Challenge On Budget, Tax

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee today took possession of Gov. Ronald Reagan's $1.08 billion tax bill and Chairman George Miller Jr. vowed to hold it until the governor signs a state budget.

The move gives Miller, a gravelly-voiced Democrat from Martinez, a whip hand over both of the state's big money bills — the budget and the tax boost that makes it balance.

In a sudden shift that caught administration officials by surprise, the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee last night reversed itself and approved the governor's bill in substantially the form he offered it.

The committee brushed aside a substitute offered by the administration as a compromise and accepted his bill worded exactly the way it was Monday when the same committee rejected it. Reagan now fears the original version won't get the necessary 27 Senate votes.

Revenue and Taxation Committee approval cleared the way for the Finance Committee to rewrite the bill if it wishes.

The Senate and Assembly have passed different versions of the $5.1 billion spending program for the year that begins July 1. The measure is now before a conference committee of three senators and three assemblymen which is trying to draft a compromise acceptable to both houses.

Miller is chairman of the conference committee, too.

"Get the old man to sign the bill on the 28th, and I'll kick your bill out on the 28th," Miller told Sen. George Deukmejian, R-Long Beach, legislative author of the administration tax package.

By holding the tax bill, the Finance Committee also is in position to pare down the tax measure by any amount the governor reduces the budget.

Marin Basks In Warm Sun

San Rafael has lost its cool — weather, that is.

Summy weather yesterday and today sent temperature readings well above the clouded chill earlier in the week. And today's noontime reading in San Rafael was a pleasant and sunny 76.

Yesterday's San Rafael high was 82, with an overnight low of 52. The sun also smiled on Mill Valley and Novato where yesterday's readings were in the low 80s. Tamalpais Valley high of 85 topped yesterday's readings.

Tomorrow's forecast for the Bay Area calls for another fair and sunny day after the usual morning fog. It should also be warm, too, with a high of 83, a low of 50 to 55, and winds of 10 to 20 miles per hour.

Arrest Brings Firing Of Gun

A routine arrest on a $7 traffic warrant late this morning changed into a scuffle during which a home-made .22-caliber pistol was discharged.

No one was injured.

Sheriff's Deputy Ronald Spurrell said he attempted to serve the warrant on John Thomas Norton, 25, of Muir Beach, at Dolan's Corner in Tamalpais Valley when Norton pulled the gun from beneath his shirt. He was booked in county jail with charges pending.

SUMMIT

that the Kremlin leader was more than willing to talk about the Vietnam war with the President.

A heavy security guard was thrown up around the New Jersey turnpike as Kosygin drove by limousine from New York for the meeting. Johnson arrived a few minutes ahead of Kosygin, flying by jet and helicopter from Washington.

Kosygin arrived about 32 minutes late at the Gothic American mansion on a college campus where the sessions were to be held.

The President had been standing outside of the Hollybush house about six minutes waiting for his fellow conferee.

Prior to Kosygin's arrival, Russian officials agreed to discuss at the Summit "substantive" questions —meaning each side was to have the privilege of bringing up any subject.

The Russians indicated that they were aware of items which President Johnson might want to discuss. U. S. sources, however, were ignorant on what Kosygin might want to put on the agenda.

The site of the meeting (population 11,600) was chosen mainly because it lies almost exactly halfway between Washington and New York where Kosygin has been attending the U. N. General Assembly session. It gave both sides a chance to meet in a surface spirit of compromise at least.

The conference was being dubbed the "Hollybush Summit" by some newsmen.

Indicative of the suddenness of the arrangements was the fact that Hollybush was air-conditioned overnight for the comfort of the President and the Premier.

billing for travel expenses.

The Senate voted 78 to 18 against changing the resolution to say that Dodd violated accepted standards of conduct rather than "accepted morals" as spelled out in the resolution.

'KILLING THE SENATOR'

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield had appealed to the Senate at the start of the day's session to stop its parliamentary wrangling, which he said was "killing the senator from Connecticut" and vote censure or acquittal.

"My fate and my future are in your hands," the silver-haired senator told his colleagues in an absolutely still chamber just before the roll was called.

"You know me well enough," Dodd said. "Let your consciencs be your guide.

As soon as he stopped speaking, Dodd brushed past several senators sitting in the same aisle and left the chamber.

He also ruled that defendant Raabe's statements to Undersheriff Sidney Stinson were invalidated by his earlier refusal to two police officers to make a statement.

Nineteen persons in all were arrested in the March 9 raid by sheriff's officers. One is serving 90 days in county jail for marijuana possession, another faces felony trial on the same charge July 24, and case against another was dismissed with her being returned to her New York home.

Attorneys representing the 12 hippies were Robert D. Carrow and Brian Rohan.

SO HE DID SOMETHING DELICIOUS ABOUT IT

He has introduced authentic English fish and chips to America. Dixie Board Chops Tax Rate 11 Cents

Dixie School District trustees last night chopped $91,000 off the proposed $3,094,000 budget for fiscal 1967-68 and reduced the tax rate by 11 cents. More money was earmarked for capital improvements, however.

Total tax rate to be levied will be $3.46 per $100 valuation compared with $3.575 the current year.

Trustees overruled a proposal by Supt. Dennie B. Willis, that the maximum tax rate be levied and reserves increased.

Willis, whose $19,750 a year contract has two years to run, was given a new four-year contract at $21,000 a year.

Assistant Supt. Joseph B. Goff, still with one year to go on his contract at $17,000 a year, was given a new contract at $18,500 a year. Dr. Penrod Moss, assistant superintendent for curriculum, was given a two-year contract at $18,000.

The salaries of teaching vice principals was increased from the additional $500 to $750 for beginning vice principals and $1,000 for those with administration credentials.

The board added four resource teachers at an extra budget cost of $4,000 and increased the instructional supply budget by $2 a pupil at an increased cost of $9,000.

Members increased capital outlay spending by $20,000 over the recommendations of Willis but reduced undistributed reserves by the same amount.

701 Advisors Review Plans

The citizens advisory group for Mill Valley's 701 planning study last night split into two sub-committees to consider proposals by the city's planning consultants.

The consultants last week proposed that Arroyo Corte Madera Del Presidio be transformed into a "linear park," and that Madrona Street be extended behind Mayer's Department Store to divert traffic away from Lytton Square, which would become a mall on the north side of the planter.

The creek plan also was referred for review to the parks and recreation commission and Mill Valley unit of Marin Conservation League.

The advisory group set a tentative meeting 8 p.m. Thursday in the library to hear the subcommittees' reports.

Reagan Tells Young GOP Views On Reds, Red Tape

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan said today that the United States should deal with communism "through a position of strength" instead of hoping communists will have a change of heart.

Addressing the National Young Republicans' Convention, California's freshman governor also warned that the federal government has grown so huge and complex that "we have to spend money to find out how to give it away."

He said the U.S. must not back down in the face of communists in Vietnam. "We can, we will, we must co-exist, but not as a timid supplicant," he said. "Co-existence must be guaranteed by strength, by our willingness to pay the full price for freedom."

Referring to the Israeli-Arab war, he said that Israel "reminded us that the price of freedom is high, but never so costly as the loss of it." He added that the short war "did not bring on World War III."

Reagan called for unity among young Republicans and said that "more than half the voters next year will be of your age group."

"How much time, how many more chances will we have?" he challenged.

Reagan was the only prominently-mentioned presidential race possibility to speak; Gov. George Romney canceled his scheduled talk due to a "budget crisis" in the Michigan legislature.

San Rafael Phone Service Interrupted

A spokesman for Pacific Telephone Co. blamed Pacific Gas and Electric Co. repairmen for a cable break that interrupted telephone service in part of San Rafael yesterday.

The telephone company official said PG&E repairmen made a partial break in three feeder cables serving the Canal Street area and part of Francisco Boulevard, as they were replacing a power pole. The break, which occurred at 2:30 p.m. and affected 485 stations, was partially repaired by 6 p.m. and fully repaired by midnight.

Vandals Hit School In Corte Madera

Vandals broke into the Neil Cummins School on Mohawk Avenue in Corte Madera last night, strewing books about one classroom, tipping over desks and writing obscenities on blackboards, police reported today.

The custodian discovered the break-in at 8 a.m. today. Entry was made by smashing a window on the west side of the building. Nothing was believed to have been taken, Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said.

Guilty Pleas On Marijuana Charge

James Joseph Rustan, 31, and Harold John Flickinger, 28, both of San Francisco, pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to a joint complaint of marijuana possession.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled preliminary hearing for 10 a.m. July 18. Sheriff's officers arrested the pair June 10. Both are free on $550 bail.

Alexander Hamilton wrote the articles of incorporation for what is now Jersey City, N.J.

Wood Island Area Value Is $88,375

An acre of the six-acre Wood Island near Greenbrae is worth $88,375, a Marin Superior Court ruled yesterday in a condemnation suit by Marin County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

The panel awarded the money to Spero Spiliotis, principal owner of the island located east of Highway 101 and fronting the north bank of Corte Madera Creek.

The condemnation is part of the Corte Madera Creek widening project. The district originally had an appraisal that the one acre was worth $91,500, but later appraisals were lower.

The jury, which deliberated six hours, found the fair market value of the land is $76,875, and that damages to the remaining five acres as a result of the condemnation would be $11,500.

Trial before Judge Samuel W. Gardiner began June 6.

One Car Found, Another Stolen

One car was reported stolen and a stolen car was found overnight in San Anselmo.

Allan Proul III, 16, of 251 Crescent Road, told police at 6 p.m. yesterday, that his 1952 Plymouth was stolen during the day from a parking lot on Saunders Avenue.

Police, on patrol at 2:10 a.m. today, checked out a car which had been parked two days at San Anselmo Avenue and Redwood Road and found it was reported stolen from Robert S. Stewart of Oakland.

Funds For Trees

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Highway Commission today allocated $55,000 for tree planting on the Highway 101 between .1 mile north of Miller Creek road, and .2 miles north of Route 37, near Ignacio.

Barry Thinks No GOP Entry Can Beat LBJ

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Barry Goldwater, while praising Gov. Ronald Reagan, still says his choice for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination is Richard M. Nixon—but foresees a gloomy GOP fate against President Johnson.

"I don't think we have a 50-50 chance of beating Johnson with anybody."

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is "intent upon disarming the U.S. unilaterally."

California Governor Reagan has "yet to be fully tested." He said Republican Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois also were untested.

FRANCE HURTS NATO

France's policies weaken NATO and could mean a Western European upheaval which could result in a reunification attempt by Germany that might precipitate World War III.

America will win the war in Vietnam but must not compromise with Hanoi, depending rather for North Vietnam to realize its hopelessness.

World communist represents the only cause of world disorder and the only barrier to world peace.

LBJ WARNED

President Johnson shouldn't compromise with Soviet Premier Kosygin at the conference table in New Jersey and warned "if something happens to cause him to take some kind of a compromise—say in Vietnam in exchange for something else—then we would have set back peace years and years."

Goldwater also praised French President Charles de Gaulle, describing him as a valiant Frenchman despite bitterness which Goldwater attributed to world "snubbings" of De Gaulle.

He blamed the Russians for the Israeli-Arab conflict, adding that in his view Russia had "sustained its first loss since World War II" and by what he termed Russia's loss in the Arab defeat had become "the laughing stock of the world."

Today is Friday, June 23, the 174th day of 1967 with 191 to follow.

The mon is between its full phase and last quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Jupiter, Mars and Venus.

Born on this day in 1876 was humorist Irvin J. Cobb, and in 1894 the Duke of Windsor.

On this day in history:

In 1763, William Penn signed a treaty of peace and friendship with the Indians on the Delaware River.

In 1845, Texas agreed to annexation by the United States.

In 1947, the House enacted the Taft-Hartley act over the veto of President Truman.

In 1964, Gen. Maxwell Taylor was appointed ambassador to South Vietnam after Henry Cabot Lodge resigned.

A thought for the day: French author Francois de Salignac de la Mothe Fenelon said: "Courage is a virtue only in proportion as it is directed by prudence."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

The Declarer May Employ Uppercut To Aid Partner

At the bridge table, the uppercut is chiefly a defensive weapon.

You ruff high, while defending, in the hope of driving out a higher trump when declarer overruffs.

This method of promoting a trump trick for your partner can be used also by declarer.

Opening lead — ♠ J

When this hand was played, East won the first trick with the ace of spades and returned a spade to the king.

South saw that he would win five tricks in the side suits and that he therefore needed five trump tricks.

This was not going to be easy in view of the bad trump break that East's double told South to expect.

Declarer began by leading a diamond to the king and ruffing a spade.

He next took the top clubs and ruffed a club in dummy.

When the suit broke evenly he was practically home.

REDUCED TO TRUMPS

South took the ace of diamonds and ruffed a diamond in his hand.

By this time East was redcued to his four trumps, and this was no mystery to South in view of the double of four hearts.

South had only the queen-nine of trumps in his own hand and needed tricks with both of those cards.

South led a club and ruffed with dummy's king of hearts.

This uppercut drove out East's ace.

East returned the jack of hearts to South's queen.

Declarer then led another club and ruffed in dummy with the eight of hearts.

This second uppercut drove out East's 10, so that South's nine of hearts was good for the last trick.

"I wouldn't have gone on to game without that nine," South observed as he scored the game and rubber.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one notrump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ J 10 9 8 3
♥ 6
♦ 9 8 4 2
♣ Q 10 8.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two spades.

This is a bad hand, but you will probably fare better at two spades than your partner will at one notrump.

California Boasts The Most Households

WASHINGTON (UPI)—California in 1965 had 5.8 million households, more than any other state, says a recent report by the Census Bureau. New York was second with 5.6 million households.

During 1960-65, Nevada gained 42,000 households, a 46 per cent boost, the highest increase in the nation for the period.

Young Patrick Lyndon Gets Heifer From Grandpa LBJ

The President also made it plain he is bestowing one of his Texas ranch properties — formerly the Lewis Ranch, a spread of several hundred acres —on his daughter Luci and her husband, Patrick J. Nugent, now that they have produced their first son and his first grandchild.

Luci already is heiress to about $500,000. Her father often has said he had two ranch properties set aside for his daughters, Luci and Lynda. But he never said outright hat he had made them a gift of the properties.

At the White House yesterday, however, the President made public a telegram sent to Nugent expressing his happiness at the birth of their son and announcing "our best Hereford heifer is being curried for delivery to the Lewis-Nugent Ranch consigned to your 9-pound son."

That made it plain the Lewis ranch was to belong to the Nugents.

Johnson, kept busy with the most pressing of international concerns including a meeting with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin in New Jersey today, has yet to see his grandson.

But there was little question at Seton Hospital here that Johnson probably would get here by Sunday to see Luci's baby.

Luci's Roman Catholic parish priest, Rev. Harold G. Zink, rector of St. Mary's Cathedral in Austin, said he tried to see Luci at the hospital yesterday but "she was preoccupied."

He said he wanted to discuss christening of the Nugent baby.

The third-floor hospital chapel was decorated yesterday with pink peonies-some of the scores of floral bouquets being sent to the President's daughter.

Luci asked a family friend to distribute some to other patients at Seton.

Everything still was going perfectly, with Luci in "high spirits" and up and walking about her hospital room, and little Patrick Lyndon reported crying lustily and progressing normally.

Mrs. Johnson, in an interview in the hospital parking lot, said she and the President were "just beginning to stand tentatively on the edge of finding out what fun this can be and what new furrows it will open up."

When it came to being called grandma, though, Mrs. Johnson admitted, "Frankly, I'm not very partial to the word."

"I'm looking forward to the experience," said the 54-year-old First Lady with a smile. "But I don't know that I like the name."

Exposure Reported To Tiburon Deputy

A man in a grey sports car exposed himself to six teen-age girls on Harbor Drive yesterday at 4:15 p.m., one of the girls' mothers reported to Tiburon sheriff's deputies.

The girls said the man had short hair, a tan face and wore sun glasses.

Citizens Group Selects Highway 17 Study Panel

The Marin Citizens Transportation Committee last night named more than a dozen civic subcommittees to study the proposed extension of Highway 17, transportation in the light of city and county planning and public transit.

The Highway 17 subcommittee will be headed by M. A. Kaufman of the Lucas Valley Freeway Study Committee. Donald Mansell of the San Anselmo Homes Association will head the public transit subcommittee, while Bart Benedict of the Sequoia Homeowners Association will head the public transit subcommittee.

The committee also passed a resolution encouraging the Marin County Transit Board to formulate as soon as possible specific proposals for a public transit system in the County, citizens committee chairman Raymond Ryason reported.

The committee tentatively scheduled its next meeting for 8 p.m. July 12 in Room 342 of the Civic Center.

Death rate on the island of Formosa is less than .6 per cent, one of the lowest in the world.

Teams Of Assassins Working Saigon Area

SAIGON (UPI)—Police investigating a rising tide of Viet Cong murder, maiming and kidnaping said today Communist man-and-woman assassination teams may have been moved into Saigon.

A terrorist hurled a hand grenade last night into a police prowl car in the Chinese quarter of Saigon, injuring 30 persons.

The attack followed by less than 24 hours the gunning down of an American Army sergeant in the same area. The sergeant survived—unlike four others slain in similar attacks by young girls with flowing black hair and snub-nosed pistols. In each case a man drove the motorscooter on which the girl killer rode.

At a hamlet northwest of Saigon an eight-man Viet Cong terror squad broke in and killed the local chief and kidnaped his security deputy.

Government spokesmen said that last week the terrorists killed 178 persons, injured 263 and kidnaped 74—the worst week of such activity this year.

The Communist terror—especially in the Saigon area — mushroomed after American troops began last week storming into longtime guerrilla stronghold jungles in the capital area, hoing to wipe them out.

In the fighting fronts, U.S. spokesmen said American jet pilots flew 125 missions against North Vietnam's key roads, rail lines and industrial plants near Hanoi and Haiphong yesterday.

One Navy A4 Skyhawk fell to Communist ground fire, spokesmen said. The pilot was listed as missing.

U.S. bombers again flattened the huge Nam Dinh thermal power plant 46 miles south-southeast of Hanoi.

During the first quarter of 1967, traffic deaths in the United States are reported by National Automobile Club to have totaled 10,900.

Home Burglarized

A burglar who entered by removing a screen from an open window stole $2,435 worth of clothing, jewelry, cameras, stereo equipment, radios and two revolvers from the home of David Fischback at 14 Overhill Road, Mill Valley, during daylight yesterday, police reported. Fischback discovered the burglary on arriving home in the evening.

South Viet Nam has a population of 16 million.

Greek Dining Place Not Easy To See, But Pleasant To Find

The tablecloths seem to be a brighter shade of red these days at Taverna Yiasou and there are several recently added decorative touches.

This is the little place that serves Greek food—located just across North San Pedro Road from the Civic Center. You can enter the parking area either from North San Pedro or from San Pablo Road. No use looking for a sign. Taverna Yiasou basks in visual obscurity.

In spite of its lack of neon identification, people seem to find it. I have seldom been there when there were not first-timers wandering in. You can always spot them, because the various Greek dishes are described for their benefit. And if they're not sure they will like the Greek retsina wine a sample is prescribed before the order is taken.

All in all, you can make a very enjoyable evening of it — and more than once.

A friend of mine makes this complaint about specialty restaurants: "The trouble is, they are only good for so many visits. After you've tried everything on the menu there's nothing left to do but start all over again—and the novelty is gone."

On the face of it this may seem like sound logic. But my friend is specious and contradictory in his reasoning and eating habits. As many times as I have come across him and his wife in other restaurants with more traditional menu selections—and plenty of them, I can't remember seeing either one of them picking up the challenge.

Invariably they order steak or prime rib, without even bothering to check the rest of the listings. Talk about being in a rut.

Incidentally, there's enough of a variety at Taverna Yiasou to keep you going through several visits before you order a repeat on the entree, if that's what bothers you. And when something is that good that you want more of it, the French, not the Greeks, had a word for it—encore.

For dinners the taverna is open only three nights a week—Thursday, Friday and Saturday. But other evenings are usually available for private parties.

FLEUR DE FRANCE INN—this is the former Mission Inn in San Rafael—has opened its dining room after remodeling and painting and is giving service daily expect on Mondays. Hours through the week are from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. for lunches, and from 4 to 10 p.m. for dinners. No lunches on Sundays —dinners are served from 3 to 10 p.m.

The dining room is detached from the main bar, which opened almost two weeks ago. Food is on the French-Basque style. If you have eaten at the Fleur de France in San Francisco you'll find the menu similar.

MEANWHILE former Mission Inn co-owners Chappie and Jerri Nardi are purchasing the Pago Pago lounge and bar at 803 Fourth Street, San Rafael, from Walt and Thelma Heroux. Harry Abras of Timmer Realty handled the sale. The Nardis were expected to take occupancy by next Monday, but the place very likely will be closed a couple of days for cleaning and remodeling.

Former Mission Inn co-owner Leo Albertoni is taking an extended vacation before he gets into another business activity.

TALKING TO George Loizos, who will be manager of the new Pepperwood Restaurant in the Red Hill Shopping Center, it appears there's a chance now of an opening by the middle of next week when Red Hill has its grand opening celebration. Delivery of some equipment may be delayed because of the warehousemen's strike, but carpeting was being installed this week and decorative work has been progressing faster than I anticipated.

If you are a Red Hill shopper, keep your eye on this San Anselmo restaurant—you may learn its exact opening as soon as I do.

MILL VALLEY ARCHITECT Viking Leon, who can point to a number of Marin homes as having originated on his drawing boards, frequently puts aside his T-square for a palette. You'll now find a collection of his paintings in the main dining room at Sam's Anchor Cafe in Tiburon.

Actually he was a recognized painter before he became a licensed architect in 1960. His first major art showing was at the San Francisco Legion of Honor Palace two years earlier. Since then he has won numerous awards in San Francisco and in showings by the Marin Society of Artists.

NEXT WEEK the Musee d'Art International at Dominic's in San Rafael will have a display of works by French women artists. Among them you'll find exhibits by such renowned painters as Yolande Ardissonde, Yvette Alde and Bordet, with engravings by Elizabeth Guggenheim and Helen d'Andlau. The show will run through July 19.

OUT AT Point Reyes Station, artist Irene Stewart has turned over the Parkway Cafe to Irene Simondi, who has been with her a year or more. But she will remain on as chef and you'll still enjoy her pies and pastries. The menu will not change. This letdown in hours and responsibilities will give her more time for herself—and particularly her paintings, which she says have fallen off in recent years. Look for more of her works to be on display now.

THE OCTUPUS fresh fish market that opened the first of this year at 7416 Redwood Highway, Novato has put in table service and you can eat on the premises—until about 7 p.m. through the week and 8 or 8:30 Fridays and Saturdays.

Available are fish and chips, seafood cocktails and salads, shrimp and crab louies, clams, abalone steak and other specialties.

OAKLAND is becoming increasingly restaurant conscious. Another big dinery is planned for the $3 million tower and wing addition to the Edgewater Garden Hotel at Nimitz Freeway and Hegenberger Road. The 12-story tower will be topped by a revolving restaurant, dance floor and cocktail lounge.

The restaurant area, circular in design, will revolve at the rate of one revolution per hour. You should be able to take in the entire panorama while you eat, as this is destined to be the tallest building east of the Kaiser Center. Tables will accommodate 144 diners around a circular dance area. There will be a special outside elevator to the 13th floor.

Don't look for this to be completed much before the late fall or winter of 1968.

NEW MUSICAL GROUP for Friday and Saturday night dancing at Two Bells in San Rafael is the John Allair Trio. This is not a rock and roll group.

Ronnie Bell is back, feeling much better and handling the kitchen. Wife Toni is in charge of the dining room and doing well at it.

ABC-IT&T Merger Again Approved By Commission

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has for the second time approved the merger of American Broadcasting Companies Inc. into International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. — the biggest merger in broadcasting history.

But the Justice Department has not decided yet whether to take its fight against the consolidation into court.

FCC Commissioners Robert E. Lee, Lee Loevinger, James J. Wadsworth and Chairman Rosel H. Hyde formed the majority in the same 4-3 lineup that prevailed when the FCC first approved the $2.8-billion merger Dec. 21.

The majority said IT&T's strong financial backing would enable ABC to better compete with the other two major networks — National Broadcasting Co. and Columbia Broadcasting System.

The new FCC decision was accompanied by a strongly worded 138-page minority opinion that accused some IT&T and ABC officials and witnesses of both companies of lack of candor and misrepresentations during their testimony at recent FCC hearings on the merger.

The minority also charged IT&T and ABC officials with "overbearing and presumptuous conduct toward the press" during the hearing and with trying "to distort and pervert the media in their reporting of these proceedings."

The Justice Department claimed the merger would harm the integrity of ABC's network news operation, and that by taking over ABC, IT&T would eliminate itself as a possible source of a fourth national television network.

Car-Truck Crash Kills 5 Persons

REDDING (AP)—Five members of a rural family died when their car smashed head-on into a lumber truck as they were moving from one home to another, seven miles west of here on Highway 299.

California Highway Patrol officers called the wreck yesterday one of the worst in Shasta County in recent years.

Authorities identified the victims as Edgar D. Rollins, 37; his wife, Barbara, 29, their children Lonetta, 9, and Edward, 7, and Mrs. Rollins' father, John Shanahan, 56.

A third child, Gai, 5, was reported in serious condition.

Academy Honored

For the third consecutive year, San Rafael Military Academy has been named as a High School Honor Reserve Officer Training Corps Unit by Sixth Army Headquarters at the San Francisco Presidio.

Rotarians Set Installation

Irving Chapman will succeed Rex T. Silvernale as president of San Rafael Rotary Club at the annual installation dinner Thursday at Peacock Gap Country Club.

A cocktail hour at 6:30 p.m. will precede the 8 p.m. dinner.

Silvernale will succeed Daniel C. Davis as vice president. William P. Murray Jr. will be treasurer, and Col. Robert S. Nourse, secretary.

Hippies Plead Innocent To Making Drugs

A trio of San Francisco hippies pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to felony charges in the June 7 distilling of mescaline and possession of marijuana in a Fairfax house.

The three, Gary Paul Davis, 23, Michael Edgar Kerr, and his wife, Barbara Irene Kerr, both 20, also challenged the validity of the search warrant used in the raid of the rented house at 79 Dominga Avenue.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled hearing on validity of the warrant for 1:30 p.m. July 25.

All three defendants are accused of processing peyote to produce mescaline. Davis also is charged with marijuana possession, and the Kerrs with planting and cultivation of marijuana.

Officers said they found 40 gallons of mescaline, 100 pounds of peyote buttons, and a small quantity of marijuana in the house. They said Davis was tending the still when they entered.

Bel Marin Keys Will Fete Fourth

College Trustees Set More Salary Studies

Marin Junior College District trustees last night called a special session next Thursday to discuss the salary schedule for administrators for next fiscal year.

William K. Ramstad, who will become college president, recommended last night that administrators be given a 7 per cent pay boost.

Trustees awarded faculty members a 7 per cent pay boost last month and said they would consider administrators' salaries after hearing from Ramstad.

Trustee Theodore C. Wellman suggested that the board's salary committee meet with Ramstad and Acting President Irwin P. Diamond for discussions "in depth."

The committee system was used during discussions on faculty salaries.

At this point, Chairman Robert E. Rogers pushed for a public meeting of the full board on the matter. The board shouldn't go along "allowing the Brown Act to scare us into the committee system," he said.

Communication and understanding would be better if the administrators met with the full board, at an open meeting, Rogers said.

Trustees also commended Diamond for his work as acting president for the past year, and voted to pay him a $1,000 bonus for his "outstanding work."

The Marin Junior College District Board Also:

LANDSCAPING PLAN — Approved plans and called for bids on landscaping around the Fine Arts building and central mall, estimated to cost $72,000.

CADOGAN HONORED — Heard a report that the south wing of the new fine arts building was named in honor of Edwin A. Cadogan who resigned this month as chairman of the division of fine arts.

GARGIULO LEAVES — Commended Joseph D. Gargiulo, who was attending his last regular session, after serving as a trustee for four years, and awarded him his nameplate. Gargiulo, who did not run for reelection, will be succeeded by Harry J. Moore of Novato.

BUILDING DEMOLITION — Called for bids on demolition of a house a 139 Kent Avenue, which houses the business office, and buildings at 1041-1043 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and bids for two portable buildings.

SNYDER RESIGNS — Accepted the resignation of Larry A. Snyder, music instructor, to accept a job as dean of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

SABBATICAL LEAVES — Approved a policy which would permit administrators to take three-month sabbatical leaves at 80 per cent of salary after three years with the district.

CHANGE ORDERS — Approved change orders for the fine arts building to widen the service road and construct a maintenance catwalk at a cost of $795.

NEWMAN CENTER — Approved final payment of $25,790 to the Catholic Welfare Corp. for the former Newman Club building at 881-885 College Avenue, which was vacated by the club Tuesday.

PERSONNEL — Hired Mrs. Janine Frias as a registered nurse program instructor at $7,490 a year, Alonso D. Gonzales, stage technician, $617 a month, Reginald Tidy, music librarian, $536 a month, and Mrs. Carol Cummings, data processing production programmer, $755 a month, and re-classified Jack Coulter to data processing supervisor, $785 a month.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING — Set July 6 at 8:30 p.m. at the Fine Arts building for the annual organizational meeting, after a tour of the building starting at 7:15 p.m.

GIFTS — Received equipment for the art department from Edwin A. Cadogan, a 196 sedan from Thomas Barbour of Mill Valley and equipment for physics classes from Optical Coating Laboratories of Santa Rosa.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy was absent.

Fire District Approves Road Widening Plan

Kentfield Fire District directors last night approved final draft agreement with the County of Marin to pave the way for widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard past the station at 1004 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The agreement, to go to supervisors Tuesday, provides that the county pay $102,000 for the present fire station and land which is to be demolished after a new station is built, and that the county will provide 7,731 added square feet of land east of the present station. The new facility will be built just behind the present one, reported Fire Chief Kenneth Kamp.

Widening will take away 42 feet of the present frontage.

Directors approved the final 1968 budget of $214,167, an increase of $60,907 over the current budget and heard that the tax rate, now 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation, may jump 22 cents due to the new station.

Burglary Case To Juvenile Court

Cases of Henry Earl Crutchfield and Donald Ray Turner, both 18, jointly charged with burglary, were referred in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to juvenile court for possible handling there as minors with report set for 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

Crutchfield, of 135 Drake Avenue, and Turner, 623 Drake Avenue, both of Marin City, allegedly entered Tamalpais High School May 30 and took a movie projecter.

Given Probation

Thomas J. Lemmons, 27, of 212 San Pablo Avenue, San Rafael, was placed on 18 months probation yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. San Rafael police arrested him on Second Street last July 16.

College Head Questions Use Of Marijuana

Irwin P. Diamond, acting president of the College of Marin, last night challenged a faculty member's published comment that there is "widespread" use of marijuana among College of Marin students.

The comment by Dikran J. Martin, psychology instructor, appeared in Carol Marsh's "Reporter's Notebook" column June 15.

OWN VIEWPOINT

Diamond emphasized that Martin was expressing an individual viewpoint, not speaking as a representative of the college.

Twelve college counselors disagree with Martin's statements, Diamond said.

The faculty is aware that there is experimentation with drugs among students, but these students "we believe are in the minority," he said.

The counselors were "distressed at Martin's generalization" on drug usage, Diamond contended.

COUNSELOR ROLES

Trustee Thomas A. Skornia expressed concern about the disclosing of confidences expressed in the student-counselor relationship which he felt should be privileged.

The relationship between the student and the counselor should be such that the student can feel he can discuss matters without having them made public, he said.

Since Martin wasn't present, trustees halted the discussion and said they'd "like to hear from him" on the matter.

Portable TV Set, Stereo Are Stolen

A burglar stole a portable television set and a stereo record player worth $305 yesterday from the apartment of Anita R. David, 15 Rodeo Avenue, Sausalito, police reported. They were taken while she was away from her apratment between 9 and 10 a.m.

Theft of three radios and a camera worth $102 was reported yesterday to Sausalito police by David Alvers, 214 Third Street. They were taken from his unlocked house during daylight Wednesday, he said.

Budget Hike Holds Little Shift In College Tax Rate

Marin Junior College District trustees last night adopted a tentative operating budget of $3,498,834 for fiscal 1968, up $59,439 from the current budget.

Business Mgr. Norman Bird estimated that the district's tax rate would be about the same as this year's 77 cents per $100 assessed valuation. "It could vary a half cent," he said.

The 77-cent tax rate includes a 35-cent override tax for the district's building program.

The budget includes a 7 per cent raise for teachers and a 2 per cent pay boost for non-teaching employees, but none for administrators.

It provides for two additional teachers and several new positions including stage technician, music librarian, audio visual technician and data processing clerk-operator.

There are reductions in the allocations for the work-study program, down $64,794 for programs on campus and down $27,767 for the off-campus programs.

The budget also includes fringe benefits granted by the board last month, life insurance at a cost of $16,600 and income protection insurance, $12,800.

The operating budget doesn't include the reserve fund for the building program, listed at $3,198,282 for fiscal 1968.

The major portion of the building expenditure, $1,917,182, was earmarked for construction of a new science building at the Kentfield campus.

Another reserve fund, totaling $263,925, would provide funds for site purchases at the North Marin campus, near Novato, Bird explained.

The lone comment from the audience came from Lesly A. Daveler of 219 Hawthorne Avenue, Larkspur, who urged that "cost of living" pay increases represent only the increase in the cost of living.

Daveler also said that when the assessed valuation of property is increased and the board holds to the maximum tax rate, it is increasing the burden on homeowners.

Thomas A. Skornia pointed out than when trustees granted the faculty a 7 per cent pay raise for fiscal 1968, they took into consideration not only "cost of living," but other factors.

The pay boost also was an attempt to bring faculty salaries to the point where there would be comparable to those in other junior college districts, Skornia said.

French law is based on the Roman law.

New Services District Head

Boyd Wells was selected by the Marinwood Community Services District board last night as chairman, succeeding Guy R. Baty.

Fred Carlson was reappointed to the fire commission.

The board accepted the resignation of fireman Ronald P. Christiansen and selected Robert Hamilton as a temporary replacement until the job can be filled permanently.

The commission approved $231 for a work-study agreement with the College of Marin for fire science students, and $150 for seats at the district wading pool.

The board adjourned until 8 p.m. Thursday to further deliberate the $142,000 budget for the coming fiscal year, up $3,000 because of payments on a new fire truck and park and recreation improvements.

The budget is scheduled for adoption July 20.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

12 EDITORIAL PAGE Friday, June 23, 1967 San Rafael, Calif.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

County Narcotic Team Is Major Step Forward

The countywide narcotics bureau, which is being organized in Marin County, can be the forerunner of coordinated action in other fields of law enforcement. It can also set an example which other counties in the state can emulate.

The advantage of the county narcotics bureau is that it coordinates activity, eliminates duplication, and fields a highly specialized team in a countywide war against narcotics traffic — all without infringing on the autonomy of the police departments of various cities.

At present, the fight against the growing drug menace is a hit and miss matter. Each police department, operating on its own without narcotics specialists or adequate equipment, tries its best to keep drug traffic down in its own community.

Lacking manpower and specialized facilities, each city has difficulty just keeping up with the drug users, let alone getting at the root of the problem — the pushers.

Even if a city police department were to follow through on a narcotics arrest in an attempt to trace the source, its work can be frustrated by a city boundary.

Police in the next city are then on their own to repeat the process, while the real culprits enjoy a measure of immunity.

The formation of a countywide narcotics bureau is a tribute to the leadership of Sheriff Louis Mountanos and the county supervisors, and the spirit of cooperation among the various city police chiefs.

The proposed countywide narcotics bureau will concentrate on drug violations, moving freely over city boundaries.

Instead of merely waiting for the most obvious users to stumble into the arms of the law, the narcotics team will be able to probe in depth. It will have the time and know-how to scratch beneath the surface, tracing drugs back to bigger sources.

The war against drugs can then change from hit and miss detection to prevention, as big pushers are placed on the defensive.

As far as we know, this is the first county, outside of charter counties like the City and County of San Francisco, where professional talent and manpower is pooled in a joint war against a specific type of crime.

Success in this project could lead to a pooling of effort in other areas such as in identification, homicide investigation, riot control or in establishing a police academy, all without any disruption in the autonomy and home rule of city police departments.

A commission of about five members will serve as an advisory body. It will have representation from the county and from cities so that all views are reflected in the policy making decisions for the narcotics bureau.

The countywide narcotics bureau opens up exciting possibilities for coordinated law enforcement, with more efficiency and less duplication.

The Quail Are Back

Our quail spend the winter on the hill in back of our place. It is above the frost line and a neighbor says they like to perch on his woodpile.

Now, however, they have returned to the petunia bed. Right now they are not eating, just eyeing the tender, young plants, waiting for them to size-up.

The males are trying out various posts on the fence, where they will post sentry and call signals to their females and quail chicks.

Quail watching season has begun in the lowlands of Marin.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Inheritance Tax Reform Fails But Hugh Flournoy Still Trying

By WAT TAKESHITA

The "last vestige of the old spoils system" still remains in California in the form of the political appointments of inheritance tax appraisers by the state controller.

Both Controller Houston Flournoy and Assemblyman Bill Bagley, R-San Rafael, did their best to scrap the patronage system.

Takeshita

For all practical purposes, Bagley's reform bill is dead for this year. What Controller Flournoy will probably do now is this:

Issue a statement of standards which inheritance tax appraisers must meet, then set up a series of qualifying examinations for inheritance tax appraisers.

This would be a slight improvement over the present system where the controller can handpick inheritance tax appraisers at random, from among those who contributed most to his campaign.

MARIN COUNTY will figure prominently in San Francisco's election to fill the vacancy left by the late State Sen. J. Eugene McAteer.

Ed Slevin of Terra Linda, who operates a public relations and political campaign firm with headquarters in San Francisco, has been picked to manage the Milton Marks campaign for the senate seat.

Slevin and Associates is the same firm that engineered Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy's victory over Pearce Young last year. Slevin went to Sacramento last week to a breakafst meeting with Senator McCarthy and other Republican senators and got the assurance of a united front from all GOP senators to back candidate Marks, who was an Assemblyman before he became municipal court judge in San Francisco.

JOE ROBINSON of San Francisco, who specializes in gathering signatures for petitions, is organizing a Bay Area Citizens Committee to fight San Francisco's proposed "commuter tax."

The San Francisco supervisors have considered as one source of added revenue a tax on San Francisco payrolls. This would affect paychecks earned by commuters from Marin and other outlying areas who work in the City.

Robinson's idea is to form a citizens committee to oppose the commuter tax, or to put up opposition in the form of a referendum.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON is the Family Picnic sponsored by the United Republicans of California at Stolte Grove in Mill Valley. It's at the corner of Montford and Laverne Avenues.

Eric Lane of Corte Madera and Steve Sacco of Novato are in charge of the UROC picnic, starting at 2 p.m. Scheduled speaker: William Penn Patrick, cosmetics manufacturer, who is seeking the U.S. Senate seat held by Thomas Kuchel.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Human Kindness For Little Deer

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In your Saturday issue (June 17) there was an article about a Mrs.Cowen, a little deer and a few harassers. I have a few things to say that I would like to see printed and I'm not afraid to give my name.

Why would anyone in their right mind want a 3-day-old deer torn to pieces? Do we have too many deer? Don't they have a place on God's earth? Certainly a dog's natural reaction is to attack a deer, just as the dog in Bolinas attacked some cats. Someone raised Cain about that dog, but now it's a turnabout, why? In my estimation, Mrs Cowen should be awarded a medal for showing a great human kindness. The harassers should devote a little time and effort of their sick minds to more constructive work. A lot of things need more attention than a person who is trying to protect a helpless creature of God's. Without this woman's help, the fawn would certainly have perished. I say three cheers for Mrs. Cowen.

Some Academic Mideast Puzzles

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regard to the letter to the editor by Alvah Bessie, the overriding question any thinking compassionate person, let alone an American Jew, might ask, should be:

Should not a peace-loving nation be guaranteed freedom against: a) terrorist raids along her borders; b) blockades against her ports; c) acts of intimidation and threats against her very existence by hostile, conniving neighbors?

If Israel did have outside support in the recent hostility, it was certainly not specifically documented by the Soviet Union, who certainly did lend support in armaments to the Arab nations. Many of the questions posed by Mr. Bessie appear to be of a secondary nature in light of the above.

If a comparison could be made of the fantastically efficient utilization of human resources of Israel to that of the Arab nations, an insight can be gained to the smashing military victory of the Israeli forces without outside support. If one could call a blockade an act of aggression, the question of who fired the first shot in the recent conflict becomes quite academic.

LSD Report Is Appalling One

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Two things about your column "Reporter's Notebook" by Carol Marsh, which appeared last week on the subject of LSD and pot, I found frankly appalling.

The first was that a man with the views attributed to Dikran Martin should ever have been given the responsibilities for college counseling at Marin College.

The second was that a supposedly responsible newspaper would publish his views without comment and without rebuttal.

Many doctors and law enforcement officers could have demolished Martin's arguments at a moment's notice. Since they were not given the opportunity, I want to point out some of the quite obvious errors in Martin's reported views.

He says he "hasn't seen a single case where it (LSD) has done the student any harm." Well the next day the I-J reported the case of a Sausalito youth who was committed to Napa State Hospital after a "bad trip" which culminated in his going berserk in the parking lot near the Spinnaker, "thrashing about and crying for help."

Regarding Martin's totally irrelevant comparison of marijuana and LSD with alcohol (I'm more concerned about excessive drinking, he says), I will grant that alcoholism is a pressing problem but I reject the notion that we can dispose of it by substituting LSD. Using the same kind of logic (?) I wonder if Martin would recommend that we go out and expose ourselves to tuberculosis on the grounds that it is less serious than cancer?

It is impossible in a letter of reasonable length to come to grips with all the fallacious reasoning touched upon in the column. But one action is called for — that is to ask the administration and trustees at Marin College what they were thinking about when they gave Martin the responsibility for counseling and advising OUR children. What's more important, what are they going to do about it now?

Bible Might Carry Answer

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It was with great interest and not without a certain amount of cynicism that I read Alvah Bessie's touching letter to the Editor in the I-J. Mr. Bessie describes himself, after a notable absence from the scene, as an American Jew who is quite concerned about the fact that the Arab nations were defeated so readily by Israel. Mr. Bessie, who lacks many requisites insofar as being both American and Jewish is concerned, as witness his rather checkered history on the U.S. political and ideological scene, attributes the five day debacle to rather sinister actions on the part of the British and Americans.

Amazingly enough, Mr. Kosygin made mention of the same factors during his U.N. speech, castigating the Israelis, British and Americans, and throwing a block at the West Germans, so that his trip should not prove a total loss. I have heard Mr. Bessie in past years, and am not surprised at his sudden outburst, but for the life of me cannot understand how he got hold of Mr. Kosygin's notes so quickly.

The fact remains that Mr. Bessie's past performances will show that he is quick to "take the other side" right or wrong, as long as his dogmatic arguments suit his peculiar tastes, which apparently now include reading the official Vatican newspaper, a practice he carefully refrained from for many years.

Mr. Bessie also forgets the scene in 1948, when the Israelis, with very little arms, repulsed the invading armies of the Arab nations. Could it be possible, Mr. Bessie, that many Arabs really have no desire to fight? Finally, a little reading of Biblical history might help explain the fighting qualities of the Israelis, with no help from the outside.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

THEATER BUFF Maurice Dolbier remembers the good old days when the special effects man backstage would simulate claps of thunder by rolling cannon balls across the floor. There was the devil to pay one night during a big scene in a lurid melodrama when a storm was supposed to be raging while an old skinflint kicked his daughter out of the house. The man assigned to push a wheelbarrow containing nine-pound cannon balls back and forth backstage tripped and sprawled on the floor. The cannon balls rolled onstage, knocked over the scenery — and the old skinflint, reduced the bass fiddle in the orchestra pit to kindling wood and came to rest in the laps of startled ladies in the second row of the orchestra. Not one lawsuit was filed until the following morning at nine o'clock.

A SMART-ALECK was elected to the local school board, and dropped into fifth-grade classroom to throw his weight about a bit. "How old are you?" he demanded of a kid in the front row. The kid answered, "Thirteen," so the smart-aleck wrote "31" on the blackboard to see if he was paying attention. When the next kid said he was twelve, the smart-aleck put a "21" on the board. The third kid was ready for him. "I'm eleven, mister," he announced. "Now let's see you mess around with that!"

AN IMPETUOUS, oft-burned, but irrepressible Argentinian playboy now begins all his passionate love letters, "Idol of my dreams and gentlemen of the jury . . ."

Peking Bomb Makes U.S.-Soviet Talks All The More Pressing

WASHINGTON — The United States and the Soviet Union have parallel concerns in three vital areas and the most perilous is Red China's possession of the hydrogen bomb.

Here's an agenda, if there ever was one, for a summit meeting:

1. How to deter Red China from playing with nuclear blackmail or starting a nuclear war.

2. How to bring the beginnings of peace to Arab-Israeli hostilities.

3. How to get an acceptable end to the fighting in Vietnam.

If it took the "peace" in the Middle East and the war in Vietnam to bring Premier Kosygin to the United Nations, then Peking's explosion of a hydrogen bomb so soon ought to be enough to bring Mr. Kosygin and President Johnson together.

THERE HAS NOT been a more urgent and opportune moment for the leaders of the two super-powers to sit down together and discuss crucial matters in awesome candor.

Throughout the fighting in Vietnam there has been great anxiety lest some unintended incident or exasperation bring the U.S. and the Soviets into riskful confrontation. From the moment the hostilities started in the Middle East, the whole world was fearful that the war might spread to embrace the U.S. and the USSR even against their wishes.

If the fighting in Vietnam or the crisis in the Middle East could bring U.S. and Russia to the brink of war, what about Red China's use — or threatened use — of its newly acquired nuclear capability anywhere in Asia or in the western Pacific?

CAN THE United States stand by and see Japan imperilled by China's nuclear bombs?

Can the U.S. suddenly say it is not committed to defend Formosa should Peking decide to use the bomb against it?

Can the Soviet Union allow India to be blackmailed into submission by nuclear threats?

Can either the U.S. or the Soviet Union be unconcerned if Red China acts to bring either its nuclear diplomatic power or its nuclear military power against one Southeast Asian country after another — Thailand, Laos, Cambodia, Burma, Malaysia, Indonesia, the Philippines?

THE ONE THING which emerges from these questions is that the answers to all of them vitally concern both the U.S. and the USSR in almost exactly the same way.

The visible and the unforeseeable consequences of Peking's possession of the hydrogen bomb raise problems in which Washington and Moscow have the largest common interests. They need to be seen, on both sides, as creating a situation in which our interests draw us together more than our conflicts draw us apart.

Our greatest common interest is to avoid being drawn into confrontation and conflict by actions over which we have little control.

Obviously we can't wave into being any easy set of circumstances which will resolve U.S.-Soviet differences in the Middle East, in Vietnam, or elsewhere. But Peking's acquisition of the hydrogen bomb triples the danger of not putting some check-rein on these differences.

WE MAY HAVE a year or so before Red China has the missiles to deliver its hydrogen bombs nearby. But the time to begin to deal with the consequences of this event is now. Kosygin in New York and Johnson in Washington are only a half-hour apart.

Mideast Crisis May Help U.S. Farmers

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The continuing Middle East crisis is causing President Johnson to take another look at those portions of his farm program designed to curb food production.

They may be sharply modified or eliminated entirely.

The President has asked Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman to carefully review restrictions on acreage of grain crops, including wheat, and report back as quickly as possible.

This precautionary move was strongly urged by Vice President Hubert Humphrey who kept close contact by phone with the President while convalescing from his recent operation.

HUMPHREY REPORTED he had ascertained that many of the Middle East countries have less than 30-day reserve supply of food.

"Our food surplus is one of our greatest cold war weapons," Humphrey reminded the President.

Big remaining mystery of the Israeli-Egyptian fighting is: Why did the Egyptians never fire and Israel never bomb the 300 ground-to-ground rockets in Nasser's possession? U.S. intelligence authorities believe the answer is that either military action would have brought intense air retaliation against the offenders' homeland, the contingency both most feared. . .

THE KREMLIN is still delaying announcement of its latest five-year plan covering 1967-71. Only a one-year plan for 1967 has so far been published. U.S. diplomatic sources in Moscow report that Soviet party leaders don't want to commit themselves to a final five-year plan until they know more about the probable course of the Vietnam war and the crisis in the Middle East.

STAFFERS SETTING up the annual governor's conference in October are facing communications and security problems they have never encountered before.

For the first time the meeting will be held aboard a ship — the American Export-Isbrandtsen luxury liner S.S. Independence — while it cruises Atlantic and Caribbean waters to the Virgin Islands.

Working with the White House's Office of Emergency Planning, officials of the governor's conference plan to set up a satellite-linked communication system with each of the 50 state capitals and with Washington.

Still undecided is whether the governors should ask President Johnson for a naval escort. The security problem is being raised, since the 50 state executives will all be at sea aboard a single vessel.

Two mammoth beach parties are being planned at St. Thomas and St. Croix for the governors, who will pay bargain prices of $250 each for the eight-day cruise.

ONE REASON for the slowdown in U.S. grain shipments to India is the big Soviet arms build-up in that country. Until assured that the Soviet arms will not be used to renew the war against Pakistan, President Johnson has directed that grain shipments to India be limited to those needed to avert hunger there.

Russian arms shipments to India were doubled in recent months and included four submarines, 75 MIG-21's, 75 transport planes, 125 arms helicopters, 160 T-55 tanks, 17 SAM launchers each with six anti-aircraft missiles; 500 army trucks and weapon carriers.

Under terms of the Russian-Indian arms agreement, U.S. sources report, the Soviets are permitted to station training officers aboard the submarines.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By PAUL PETERZELL

Why Did Mill Valley's Mayor Suddenly Delay Lot Hearing?

Mill Valley Mayor Albert E. White fell into his credibility gap Monday night.

At issue was proposed subdivision of a lot at Throckmorton Avenue and Eugene Street — just down the street from the Mayor's house. The hearing still was on the final council agenda printed Monday afternoon, but when the council got to the hearing Monday night, the Mayor announced it was delayed to July 5 "at the request of the planning staff."

White then had Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon tell the council that rezoning to increase minimum lot sizes in the neighborhood in which the proposed subdivision is located would be considered July 5, and that the two issues "are closely related."

IT WAS A GOOD act — But the hard fact is that White instigated the delay, not the planning staff. The staff did not even know of the delay until White announced it.

The Mayor's scheme is transparent. He hopes to defeat a perfectly legal subdivision by changing the zoning ex post facto.

This is not a case in which a public official nobly rushes to block a disastrous development with a little slight of hand with the law. It is a case of a public official attempting to use his position to stop a legal subdivision apparently for personal reasons — at the expense of the property owner.

The delay was hotly protested by owner of the lot, Herbert Eloesser. He had driven to Mill Valley directly from work in Berkeley, without his dinner, he noted, to attend the advertised public hearing. Eloesser also told the council he would be out of the country July 5.

THE OTHER councilmen, however, faced with what purported to be a request for delay from the planning staff, and assured it was legal, agreed to the delay.

The planning commission previously recommended both the subdivision and rezoning of the area. At first, commissioners had moved toward derailing the subdivision with the rezoning, but Commissioner Paul Rosenthal led them back from the jungle of ex post facto.

Key to the issue, the planning commission agreed, was which came first. It found that Eloesser had applied for the subdivision before the rezoning was initiated.

APPARENTLY dissatisfied with the commission's finding of the facts, White has assumed the duties of the commission, too. If he succeeds in his maneuver, Eloesser will have been the victim of a blatant abuse of government power.

Eloesser, before the Mayor delayed his hearing two weeks, had to sit through almost two hours of protest against another subdivision. The Mayor apparently decided to delay the Eloesser subdivision during a break after the first hearing.

DURING THE long protest in the first hearing, the mayor allowed members of the audience to repeat themselves endlessly, an affront to the 50 or so persons who had come on other business. They were forced to wait until almost 10 p.m. while the council heard the matter for a second time.

The democratic process, thus, was frustrated by too many words. It was the responsibility of Mayor White, as chairman, to see that this did not happen.

FINAL TOUCH of the meeting came at 12:21 a.m., when White chose to read a long poem from one of his admirers to an audience of six persons. Even at 8 p.m. it would have been a poor use of the public's time.

For three centuries explorers tried to find a waterway across the American continent to be used as a short route from the Pacific to England.

ART BUCHWALD

Smart Soviets Find Ideal Way To Deliver Arms To Israeli

WASHINGTON — There has been some confusion as to how much aid the Soviet Union gave the Arab nations during the recent unpleasantness in the Middle East. What nobody knows is that the Soviets' real intention was to help Israel. But they had to do it in such a way that neither the Arab countries nor the West would find out about it.

It seems the Soviet Union has been trying to increase its arms business to compete with the United States and Great Britain. One of the most likely prospects was Israel, who was finding it hard to get military equipment from the West. The Soviets said they would give Israel everything she wanted, but it would have to be done in such a way that it wouldn't anger the Arab countries or even some Communist-leaning states.

ISRAEL SAID she was interested, but didn't want to do anything to anger the United States, Great Britain and France.

Encouraged by what could turn out to be a very good customer, the Soviet Union proceeded to devise a way of getting Russian arms into the hands of the well-equipped Israeli army. The big question was, "How?"

Then someone in the Politburo (the Soviets refuse to say who) got a brilliant idea. He told the Israeli diplomats, "We naturally cannot sell you the weapons directly, but why don't we give them to the United Arab Republic and then you can get our weapons from them?"

The Israelis pointed out that the UAR might be reluctant to give the Israelis any of their Soviet weapons. The Soviets told them not to worry about it. "Just give us a list of what you need," they said.

THE ISRAELIS, trusting implicitly in the good faith of the Soviet Union, handed in a list including tanks, guns, armored cars, jeeps, small arms and, surprisingly enough, six or seven Soviet ground-to-air missiles.

A year later the Soviets told the Israelis that their order was ready and would be delivered in a month.

The Israelis were puzzled, but decided to wait and see what would happen. Sure enough, in May Gamal Abdel Nasser closed the Gulf of Aqaba and moved seven divisions of his troops and armor into the Sinai desert.

AT THE SAME time the Soviet Union accused Israel of being an "aggressor," which was the code name for "customer."

On June 5 the Israelis went to collect their equipment in the Sinai desert, where it was conveniently left by Egyptian troops, many of whom didn't even wait to be tipped for delivering it. The tanks, personnel carriers, guns and even missiles were brand new. A few were damaged in transit, but by and large the Russians had made everything available as ordered.

ALL IN ALL it was quite a coup for the Soviet Union. In one of the great business deals of our time, the Soviets managed to collect twice for the same equipment, first from the Arabs and then from the Israelis.

As a follow-up it has been reported that the Soviets are sending in new arms and equipment to the United Arab Republic.

What nobody knows is that all they're doing is filling another Israeli order for equipment.

One Soviet diplomat told me, "By supplying the Arabs with arms, Israel has turned out to be the best customer we've got."

General Land Plan On Agenda

The city-county services committee will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the Civic Center to consider forming an advisory group on drawing a general land plan for Marin.

Plans for the group, which would be known as the City-County Planning Council, were drawn by the county planning department at the request of the services committee, according to Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows.

The services committee also will discuss city-county powers over the five-man central narcotics bureau and the progress of legislation increasing the charge to cities in Marin for processing traffic tickets in the county-operated municipal court.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Behr's Remarks On Tax Rate Branded 'Capricious Arrogance'

Last week's opening sentence, "Capricious arrogance seems to best describe the administration and conduct of some of our county government," was completely justified this week.

What better example could be found than Behr's bravado, "I'm not going to let this tax rate frighten me."

Fusselman

This followed his statement that the public was "deeply concerned" about current park development and that, "I don't consider bond issues a method of meeting our present obligations."

JUST TRY and pin that guy down if you can. You remember he was the eager chairman of the late lamented $4.3 million bond issue for parks.

The public is "deeply concerned" all right but not the way he wishfully thinks. He has never given any evidence that he really wants a real mandate from the voters. But he can be counted on to imagine one.

I have had a number of inquiries about "Brasilia of Marin" — In addition to having "a lot of coffee in Brazil" they have built themsleves a huge government complex — a city.

It is up in the hills, and way off from the center of population — hundreds of miles from their long established capital, Rio de Janeiro. It is difficult to get to and a back breaking financial burden. They named the place "Brasilia" — need I say more?

TRY AND FIGURE this one out. — From the I-J a week or so ago; "Bruce Says Be Kind To Hippies . . . Marin County Administrator Allen Bruce told several county department heads yesterday that hippies, expected in Marin in great numbers this summer, should be treated with 'understanding and communication rather than with a policy of persecution and fear'."

"Bruce called the meeting of about 20 employees with Henry Jefferson Sudduth IV, known as Buddah, a hippie leader. The session in the Civic Center lasted two hours yesterday."

"An Independent-Journal reporter left the meeting when Bruce said the reporter could only stay on an 'off the record basis.'

NOW, WHAT kind of monkey business is that anyway? Fancy the waste of money (yours) for a two hour meeting of 20 top salaried people plus his own exalted compensation, behind closed doors that resulted in a $50 thousand appropriation.

The letter to the editor from Rudy Gabbani of Nicasio, recently, on this maneuver couldn't have been more to the point. If you missed it — let me know I will see that you get a copy.

Last Friday I inadvertently said, "I would not challenge property control." It should have read "proper control" — I am and always have been against straight-jacket government.

DURING THE next few weeks I intend to present a picture of county government as it is, but for your sake shouldn't be.

Shall we dance?

Teens Admit To Taking $57

Three San Anselmo boys were cited to the county probation department yesterday after two admitted stealing $57 from a home and another admitted ripping five window screens of another residence in an attempted burglary.

Police said the mother of one 14-year-old came to the police station with her son yesterday where the boy confessed to entering the home of Dr. Lynn M. Rudee of 150 Spring Grove Avenue last weekend with another 14-year-old.

A 12-year-old boy, brother of one of the other boys, admitted he attempted to enter the home of City Engineer Charles R. Leitzell, 3 Oakwood Avenue, screens with tin snips and ripscreens with tine snips and ripped a swimming pool cover, doing $50 damage.

Tiburon Zone Hearing Sparked By Walkout

Two developers asked more time for discussion on the proposed Tiburon zoning ordinance last night as the Tiburon Planning Commission held its first public hearing on the ordinance before a crowd of 50 persons, some of whom left in anger.

Commission chairman Erik Rettig continued the hearing until 8 p.m., Tuesday, after Thomas P. Kelly Jr., attorney for Northwestern Pacific Railroad announced that he wanted four hours in which to question planning consultant George Gatter, who prepared the ordinance.

IN WRITING

Matthew Weinberg, representing owners who want a commercial waterfront development, also wanted to make a presentation.

Rettig asked all present to put questions on the ordinance in writing in advance of the Tuesday hearing so that Gatter could have time to prepare answers.

The city must adopt the ordinance by September to replace its interim zoning, which has been the county zoning ordinance.

The new ordinance allows 11 basic zones. Parks (open space and recreation), agricultural, residential one-acre and half-acre zones, planned residential (townhouses), single family residential with a minimum lot size of 7,500 feet, duplexes, multi-family residential (any kind of housing, subject to design review), professional-administrative, village commercial (extending Main Street) and general commercial (for future services of a larger population.)

A height limit of 30 feet is set on all zones except commercial.

LEGAL QUESTION

Gatter explained that existing sub-standard lots would not be affected by the ordinance and that building permits already granted before the ordinance is adopted would be legal and proper.

Leo Bodian, 888 Round Hill Road, charged the ordinance was "slightly illegal" as it apparently precluded amateur radio stations, "I will continue operating my station, whatever you do," he warned. But Gatter explained the restriction was meant to apply only to antenna heights and would be reworded.

Samuel Shaper, developer and Tiburon city treasurer objected to some of the uses allowed under use permits. Gatter said they were not "rights" and were all subject to review by the commission in public.

'RAMROD JOB'

As Chairman Rettig prepared to adjourn the hearing, Fred Mantegani in the audience allied the meeting "the biggest ramrod job I ever saw in my life." He said the railroad has something the city wants and vice versa and felt the city should work out a solution.

Victor Banks said the property owners should also have more time to be heard.

Rettig said the commission has been working on the ordinance in study session, open to the public, since last February.

Commissioner John McChesney was absent last night.

Physical Fitness Report Scheduled

Members of the San Rafael Board of Education Tuesday will hear a report on physical fitness testing and reading tests for the sixth and 10 grades, consider new policy on the use of high school football fields and debate new salaries for coaches.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the former E Street School.

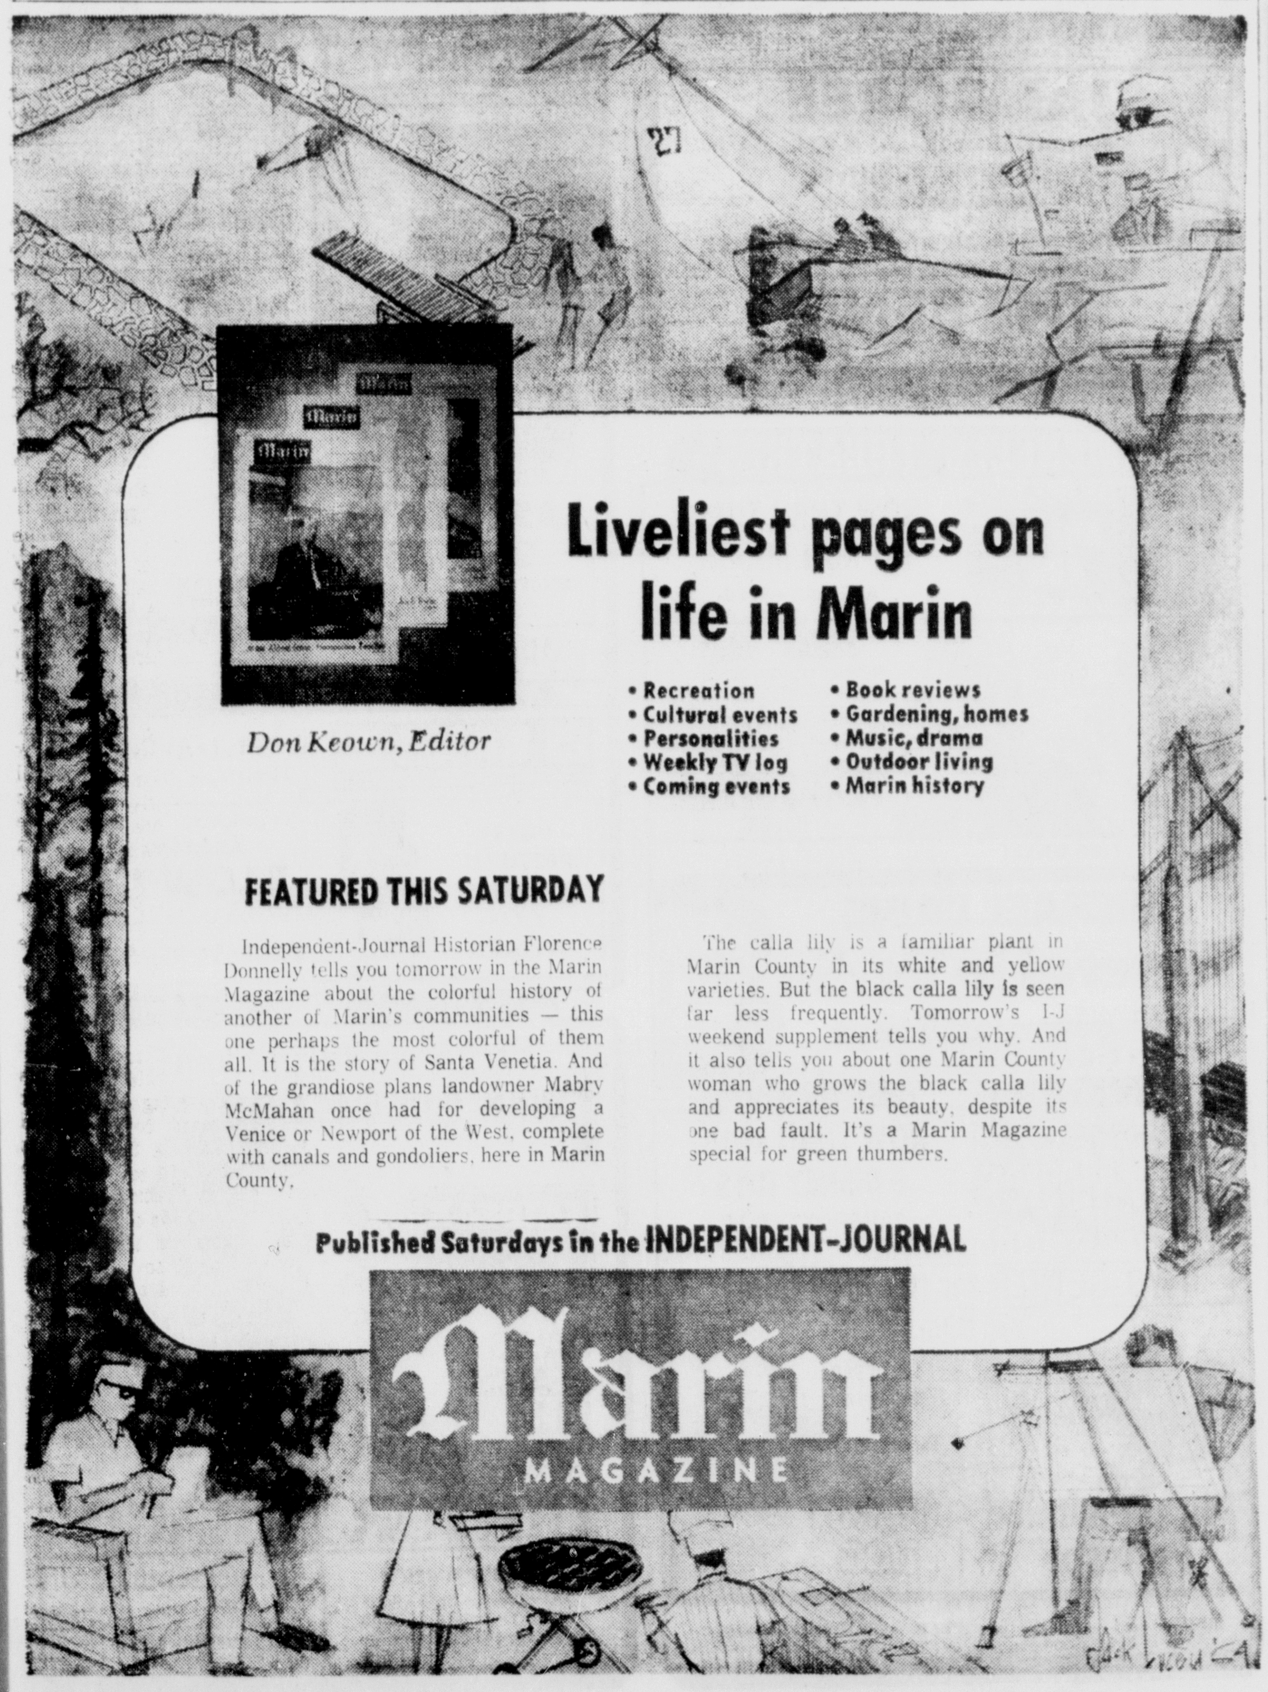
Guilty Verdict Is Delivered In Robbery Trial

Ex-convict Leonard Amuel Trimaur, 32, was found guilty by a Marin Superior Court jury yesterday afternoon of robbing a San Rafael man last April 30.

Sentence is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Monday by Judge Thomas F. Keating. The jury, which deliberated only an hour, convicted Trimaur of grabbing $300, a money clip, and a gold clip from the pocket of Coulter McKeever, 70, after McKeever walked out of a bar at Third Street and Tamalpais Avenue in San Rafael.

Trimaur, who has served prison time for burglary in Marin County, testified a large amount of money he had was won by himself while betting on pool games in San Rafael on April 28.

He was paroled from prison March 10. Asst. Public Defender Harold J. Truett represented Trimaur. Leonard Shaw, assistant district attorney, prosecuted. Trial began Tuesday.



MARIN FILM FARE

Mixed Reactions To 'Casino Royale' Romp

By LES DARD

This weekend's Marin area film fare is as varied as it is interesting. Let's take a look:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Amassing a colossal range of far-out reactions is the mammoth new farce on everything going in spy films today: "Casino Royale."

Six directors and three screenwriters have slung together a laugh-fest with a semblance of plot — the good guys have got to smash SMERSH, and topple evil financier and baccarat player Orson Welles. Sir James Bond (David Niven) leaves retirement to head the operation.

Along for the fun are Woody Allen as Sir James' wacky genius-nephew and Peter Sellers as one of several spurious Bonds. Ursula Andress livens things up as do Joanna Pette, Daliah Lavi, Deborah Kerr, William Holden, John Huston and many, many more.

NOVATO THEATER

If you're in the market for a really fine Western, don't pass up "Hombre," now on screen.

Paul Newman takes the title role of a white man raised by the Apaches. His tempered manner conceals a life of bitter hostility, yet with the seeds of nobility. Briefly, the involved story has him on a stagecoach where he saves the lives of his fellow passengers after an ambush.

The supporting characters are worthy of considerable note. There's Frederic March as a haughty Indian agent, absconding with money meant to feed the Apache reservation; Martin Balsam as the Mexican stagedriver, friendly to outcast Newman; and Richard Boone as a cruel and villianous stranger who turns out to be the ringleader of the fateful ambush.

An excellent show. Lots of action does not interfere with its subtler excellences.

101 DRIVE-IN

Fast-rising Cockney star Michael Caine stars in the escapist espionage entry from Britain "Funeral In Berlin."

MOTOR MOVIES

Now on screen is a bill for the very young set. It's two of Walt Disney all-time favorites: "The Shaggy Dog" and "The Absent-Minded Professor."

In the first, a young college man finds himself transformed into a very large dog, and in the second a nutty scientist-type discovers an anti-gravity substance he calls flubber. Tommy Kirk is the dog-boy, Fred MacMurray the crazy prof.

FAIRFAX THEATER

"Doctor Zhivago" is still continuing its long run here, with its story based on Boris Pasternak's epic novel of life, love and war in early 20th century Russia.

Omar Sharif is the poet-doctor, Zhivago; Julie Christie as his evanescent love, Lara; and Geraldine Chaplin as his sad wife. Siobhan McKenna, Rod Steiger, Tom Courtenayx, Rita Tushingham and Alec Guiness also contribute.

NORTHGATE THEATER

An equally powerful view of life comes in "Zorba, the Greek," holding over on its return run here.

LARK THEATER

David Hemmings stars as a fashion photographer in mod London who confuses the world behind the lens of his mind with reality.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

San Francisco producer-director-writer John Korty has put together an art film, running under the banner of "Crazy Quilt," held over here.

The story involves the marriage of a down-to-earth nihilist house ppinter and a feet-in-the-air romantic.

Co-featured is an intriguing British entry, "Billy Liar." Tom Courtenay stars as a young man who lives in an imaginary world and prefers it to the one all around him.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Holding over here is the sequel to "A Fistful of Dollars," a well received Spanish-made Western of not long ago. It's "For A Few Dollars More," and again stars Clint Eastwood, playig an enigmatic bounty hunter. The film concerns a confrontation between Eastwood and another hunter, Lee Van Cleff.

RAFAEL THEATER

Another big recent western is "The War Wagon," staying with us here. Stars are Kirk Douglas, John Wayne, Howard Keel, Robert Walker, Keenan Wynn and Bruce Cabot, involved in an "impossible robbery" of a gold shipment from a fearsome black armored wagon armed with a Gatling gun.

Marin To Get Trailer Flow

If Marinites think they're seeing thousands of travel trailers next week, it's because they are.

More than 10,000 people in more than 3,000 trailers will descend on Santa Rosa Tuesday through July 4 for the 10th annual rally of the Wally Byam Caravan Club, which club officials say is the largest of its kind.

The trailers will be at the old naval air station outside Santa Rosa, where club officials have set up facilities for a complete trailer city.

Marin is expected to catch considerable overflow of touring trailerites before and after the rally.

Sailing Delayed

Departure from Tiburon's Marine Mineral Technology Center of the research vessel Virginia City has been delayed until tomorrow, research director Arthur P. Nelson reported today. The ship is to pump samples from the ocean floor in Alaskan waters this summer.

16 Marinites New Draftees

Sixteen Marin County men were inducted under the June quota, Selective Service Local Board 25 has announced.

None is married, according to board records.

The fraftees were:

Wolfgang Hagel, Leonard J. Ignrassia Jr., Rayford D. Phillips and Allen D. Springstead, all of San Rafael; Frederick L. Abramson, Stephen P. Abramson, William C. Bingham and Dennis B. De Moss, all of San Anselmo.

James A. Boitano and James R. Stenhoff of Mill Valley; William E. Rosser III and William P. Weekley of Novato; Elmo A. Sasselli of Corte Madera, Michael E. Elwell of Greenbrae, Pedro A. Aba, who had moved since registration to, San Francisco, and David G. Cockey, who had moved to Livermore.

Drunken Driving Sentences Given

Three persons were sentenced yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Henry Andrew Harris, 56, of 25 Willow Avenue, Corte Madera, was fined $202 and placed on two years probation. Corte Madera police arrested him April 8 on Redwood Avenue.

Mrs. Jacqueline Neville, 45, of 268 Brookside Drive, San Anselmo, was fined $230 and placed on a year's probation. San Anselmo police arrested her Wednesday on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Warren L. Overlid, 43, of 15 Knight Drive, San Rafael, was fined $289 and placed on a year's probation. San Rafael police arrested him Sunday on Fourth Street.

Airplanes are now being used to scare away flocks of birds that damage crops.

Rabbi Critical Of Clergy Role In World Crisis

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — America's Christian clergy came under fire from a reform rabbi yesterday for failing to provide moral support to Israel during the recent Middle East outbreak.

Speaking to the Central Conference of American Rabbis, Rabbi Balfour Brickner of New York said the "official spokesmen of American Christendom were not only silent . . . but by their silence or by their prayerful calls for peace, suggesting that the matter be placed in the lap of a then practically paralyzed United Nations—they also failed the cause of world peace."

Wreck Claims Five Persons

REDDING (UPI) —Five persons, representing three generations of one family, were killed yesterday when their station wagon smashed head-on into a logging truck about six miles west of here. Another was injured.

The dead were identified as Edgard Rollins, 37, Willow Creek; his wife, Barbara, 29; two of their children, Edward, 7, and Lonetta, 9, and Mrs. Rollins' father, John Shanahan, 56, Redding.

The Highway Patrol said the Rollins vehicle swerved into the path of a truck on a two-lane road while attempting to avoid a car entering the highway from a side road. The other car left the scene, and officers said they were seeking the driver.

Liquor 'Runs' Due To Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Employers are resorting to bootlegging to obtain liquor supplies despite a Northern California warehouse strike, they said yesterday.

Grocers and small liquor stores have been running short of popular liquor brands because Teamsters Union and International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union members struck June 12.

An unnamed spokesman for a group of small stores said several grocers camouflaged a truck and "made a run up north" successfully.

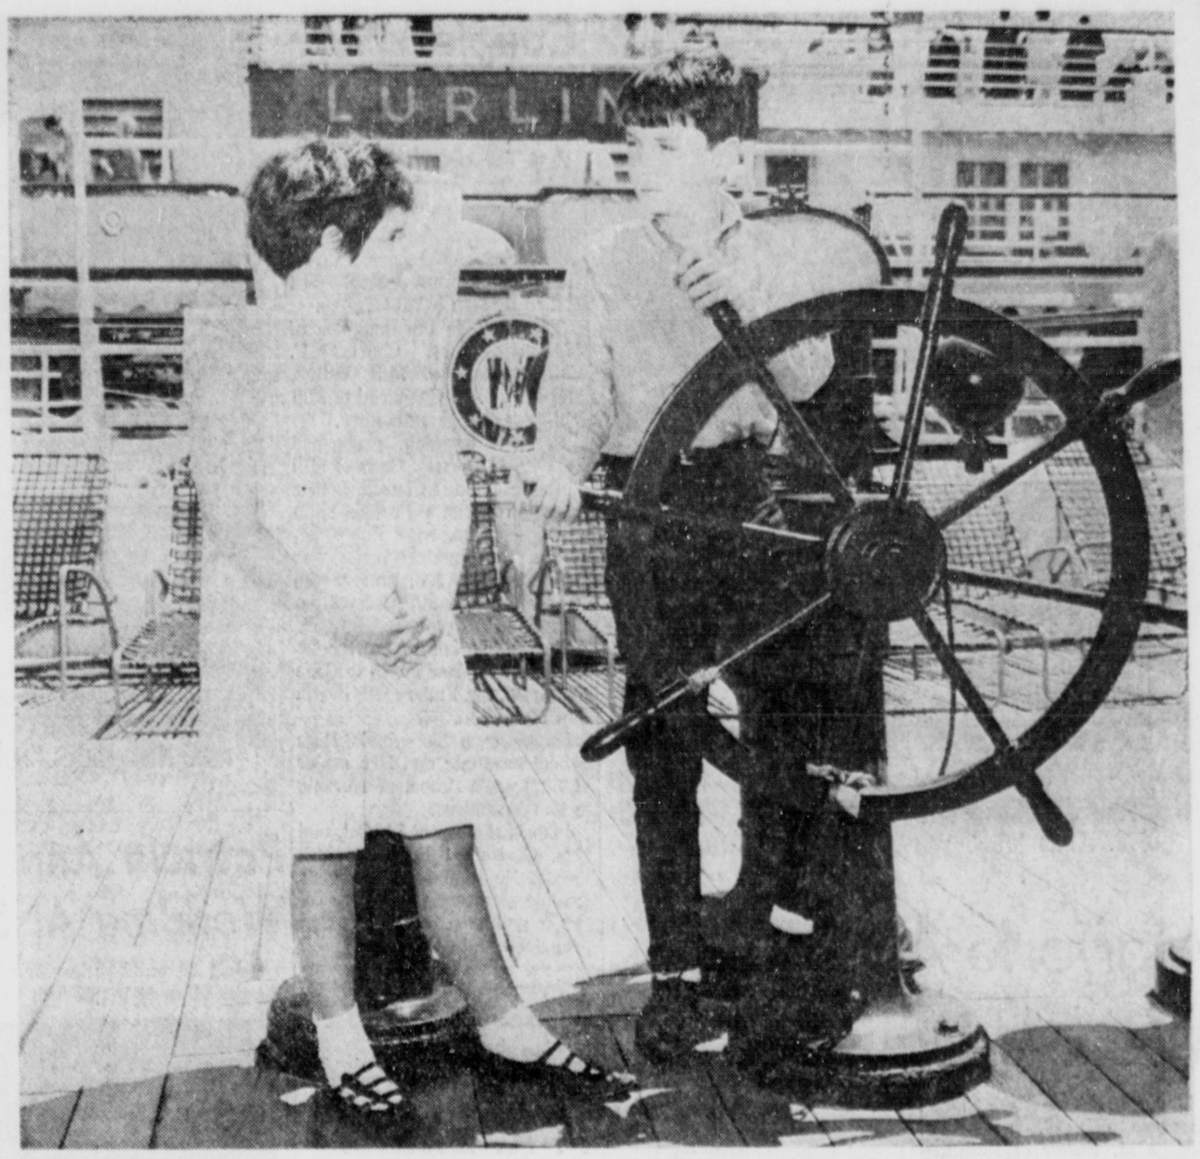
SERPENTINE unfurls as the S. S. Lurline passengers—Marinites among them—bid farewell to the mainland. The luxurious Matson liner, which accomodates 770 passengers, will reach Hawaii in four-and-one-half days. On arrival at the dock in Honolulu, passengers are welcomed by the famed Royal Hawaiian Band. Highlighting the first evening at sea is the captain's "Welcome Aboard" party. (Cal Pictures photos)



EXPLORING THE sundeck are Hildred and Philip Gallagher who, with their mother, Mrs. A. W. Gallagher of Sausalito, were on their way to visit their grandfather in Honolulu. Many activities are planned for the youngsters on the ship.

Gold-Carpeted Gangplank Leads To A Paradise Afloat

By PATRICIA ZINN

"Sailing is the only way to go" on a vacation to our "State of Paradise" — Hawaii — after walking up the gold-carpeted gangplank of the S.S. Lurline on sailing day.

Excitement abounds at Pier 35 with passengers and bon voyage party guests arriving while stevedores and messenger boys deliver scores of flowers, champagne and telegrams.

ABOARD THE "Luxurious City Afloat" which accomodates 770 passengers, the hubbub increases as everyone has the run of the ship and its swimming pool, marine veranda, promenade deck, the piano bar and ballroom.

AND THIS is only the beginning—

For it is after the great ship pulls anchor that island fever sets in beginning with the captain's "Welcome Aboard" champagne party in the main lounge.

Throughout the day passengers can participate in such diversified activities as horseracing, trapshooting, golf driving and hula classes. One popular feature, especially with the men, is the navigation bridge inspection.

At sea evening festivities heighten with Parisian Night, Mardi Gras Costume Ball, Captain's Dinner, Captain's Ball, Le'a Le'a Time, Beachcomber night, Bavarian Night and, best of all, Hula Class Graduation.

ON THE colorful Polynesian Night passengers don their loudest aloha shirt, muu muu or other Hawaiian attire for the Polynesian dinner and the fashion parade in the main ballroom. Bavarian Night gets underway with a songfest in the Rathskeller (Marine Veranda) followed by a Bavarian dinner.

Reservations anyone?

News From Paris— Hems Coming Down

PARIS (AP) — Hemlines are coming down in the new Paris collections for fall and winter. About an inch below the knee seems to be the consensus.

"Mine will be longer," says Carven. "Why freeze in winter?"

Coco Chanel, who once got herself in trouble with the young swingers with a blast at miniskirts, says: "I'm against ugliness. I always think of the onceover a man gives a woman. "Elegance is a harmony."

The collections will be shown next month. The Paris houses that went a couple of inches above the knee seem determined to reverse the trend. Dior made a tentative move in this direction last year by lengthening coats.

GUY LAROCHE thinks "the time has come to search for better proportions." He feels, however, "calf length is incompatible with contemporary living."

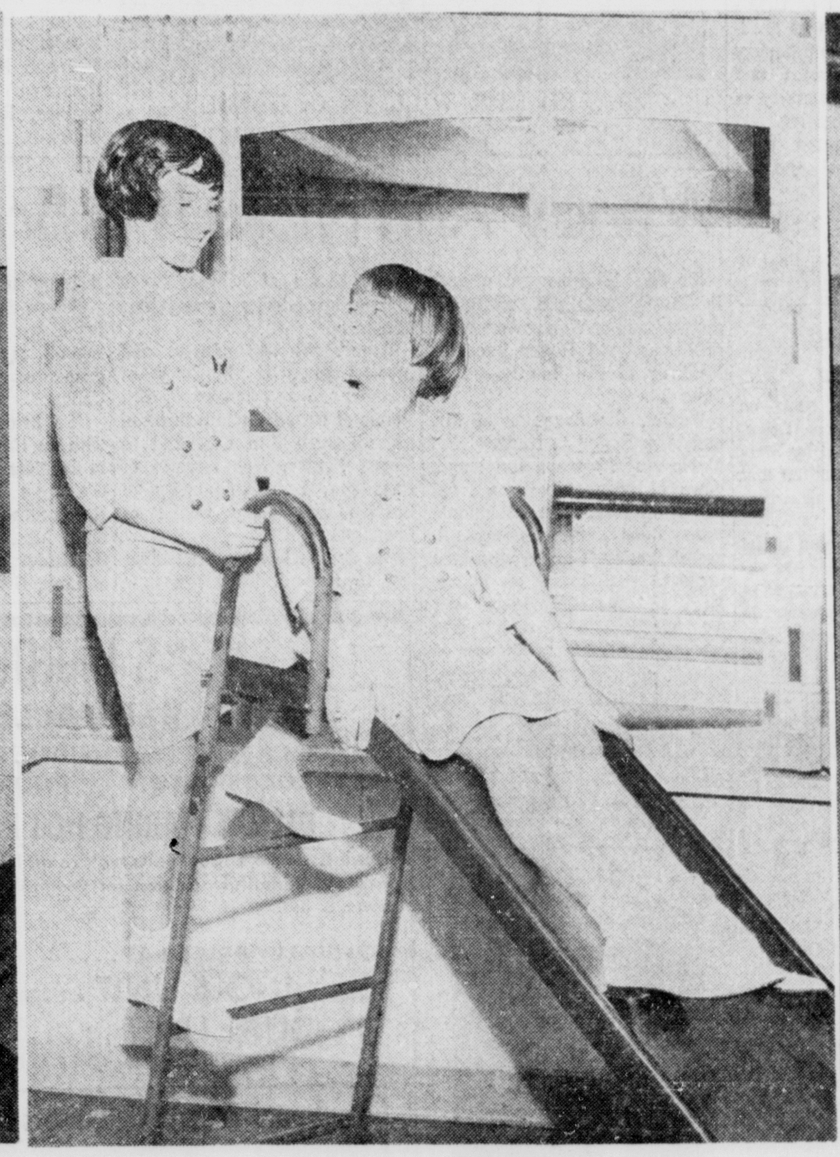
Jen Pomarede, designer for Jacques Heim, will show two lengths. For daytime, he skims the knee cap. From cocktail time on he has a "surprise calf length."

Gerard Pipart, designer for Nina Ricci, spreads his lengths around the block. For sports, he follows a traditional British look, below the knees. For afternoon they swing short, and for evening they are often irregular.

But nothing has changed for Ted Lapidus, the most offbeat of all Paris couturiers. He sticks to his guns and claims "both mothers and daughters will show kneecaps in a variety of minilengths."

OTHER than the hemlines, the prospect for the new season is a veering away from the Twiggy look and the masculine silhouette and back to the feminine girls. Clothes will be cut to show the figure. Waists will be cinched and always belted, necklines flattering and sleeves everywhere.

ALL SET FOR the sailing are the Harold R. Hayes and daughters Karen, left, and Heidi, of San Rafael. It is estimated that 800,000 tourists will visit Hawaii this year. Oahu, in which Honolulu is located, was inhabited as early as 1000 A.D.



HEIDI, standing, and Karen in the Children's Playroom on the Lurline. A cruise host and hostess supervise all activities on the liner. The largest expanse of open ocean in the world lies between the coast of California and the Hawaiian islands.

LEI-DECKED PASSENGERS are the W. Ray Sheltons of San Rafael. Popular among passengers is the Matson Mariners Club where certificates of rank are determined by the number of Matson miles. Members logging 35,000 miles qualify for Honorary Commodore.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Tired Of Third Degree, Warnings, Daughter Runs Away With Friend

DEAR HELEN:

Reading those letters by the super-husbands, I discover I have a long way to go before I'm perfect, according to my wife—who read them too.

So what does a lesser man do when his "yelp-mate" reminds him at least three times a day, in spades, that he should pattern after "the men who write to Helen?"

You started this, kiddo, so give me a gentlemanly answer in ten words or less that will knock off my wife's nagging. She liked me fine, before.

—SOMEWHAT IMPERFECT

DEAR S.I.:

How about, "Don't make like an angel and harp!" —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I write this hoping it will be read by perhaps one mother of a teen she feels is "rebellious, disrespectful" and all the other adjectives I've heard used against them too often.

I remember how my Sandy always confided in me and how I enjoyed listening to her — before she turned 14. But then things started going wrong. She wanted to wear makeup to "look good" for Greg, or Tom, or whoever, but I said she was too young. I became frightened at all I had heard about those teenage beer and drug brawls. I third-degreed her about every party, every date. I knew she wasn't and isn't a rough delinquent, but "a mother can't be too careful."

And then Tim! A friend told me he was wild, so I forbid Sandy's riding home from school with him. "You know those teen drivers—besides things can happen." She insisted he was nice and I shouldn't believe hearsay, but I wouldn't meet him. I warned, ranted, refused to let her go out with him, grounded her for being rebellious. I was only "guiding" her Helen—what does a girl of 16 know?

Her grades fell from "A" to low "B." I lectured about them, about her dress, her actions, attitude, friends. She cried and asked for a chance, but I knew I was right.

I had always been so proud of her achievements. Now I was obsessed with fear. I nagged and pressured her.

Helen, if I'd have given her the chance to prove she could grow up wisely, she would still been just as wonderful, and I would still have her.

You see, she ran away with Tim, leaving a note saying she couldn't stand it when I didn't have confidence in her decisions, when I wouldn't let her breathe and when I didn't give her credit to judge right from wrong. It was too much for her, and Tim was the only escape.

I want her back, but it's too late. She's 16, and gone away.

—LITTLE GIRL LOST

DEAR HELEN:

This has been a long, rough week. It started the night my husband met the boys after work and got home at 4:00 a.m. I got in such a stew I reverted to childish behavior and sulked till he stayed out two more nights—to show me.

Well, things have calmed down and he's given me another chance, but I've concluded I need to make more of my own life so I won't be dependent entirely on his. I've often wanted to be part of the theatrical world. Maybe this can be my way out, and his too. Helen, tell me how to crash the scenes.

—THE LEANER

DEAR LEANER:

Contact the Little Theater group in your town and they'll give you a try-out. But be sure you're doing this for the right reasons — not "to get even." If you're still smoldering underneath, settle the "nights out" business with your husband amicably before you tootle off on excursions of your own. Otherwise, you might as well kiss your marriage good-bye.

—H.

Yachting Send-Off For Racing Crews

By MOLLY MARIN

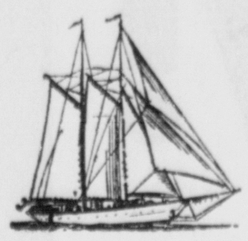
Purpose of the big party of San Francisco Yacht Club in Belvedere Thursday night is to support the Bay Area sailing teams going to the International One Design Class World Championships in Norway.

Leading the contenders is Frank "Jake" Wosser of Tiburon, twice acclaimed world champion of the class. Jake won when SFYC hosted the series in 1965, and successfully defended his title in Bermuda last year. Members of his crew are Dick Griffith, Mel McCormack, and his daughter, Susie Wosser. Susie is already traveling in Europe and will join the crew at Oslo. Bert Damner of Ross and Sausalito will also skipper for the Belvedere Club, with Hal Oyen, Bill Bagge and Bob Strom crewing. Bill King of Sausalito, representing St. Francis Yacht Club, has signed on his wife, Angie, Jeff Menzel, Steve Estes and Ed Brovelli Jr. The party of bay yachtsmen leaves July 4 by chartered flight to Osla. They will travel to the island of Hanko for a few days of practice before the week of racing starts on July 8. Norway, England, Bermuda, Marble Head and Long Island fleets will send representatives to the championship.

Planning the dinner and dance beginning at 8 p.m. Thursday are William Votaw and O. R. Holm, co-chairmen; Larry Mersereau, music; Bert Damner, Bill King and Karl Tulp, officers of the International One Design Class of San Francisco Bay, assistants. Mrs. King and Mrs. Tulp are helping organize the party and will head a group of hostesses serving hors d'oeuvres during the cocktail party.

ENTERTAINING TOMORROW at a family reunion are the Keith C. Craigs of Novato. They will entertain his two sisters and their families, Mrs. David Newsom of Libya and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Valory of Lafayette. Mrs. Newsom's husband, who is the Ambassador to Libya, has been called back to Libya because of the Middle East crisis.

THE CABELL GWATHMEYS are home in Belvedere after a trip East. Cabell and Marian went to Washington, D.C., for a few days before going on to New York where Cabell attended the annual convention of the American Institute of Architects. Their daughter, Margaret, joined them in New York. Margaret and her mother toured New England, attended Expo '67 in Montreal, and drove across the country, visiting the Black Hills of South Dakota and Yellowstone.



Margaret, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, has been living in Charlotte, N.C. She expects to make the Bay Area her permanent home. The Gwathmeys' son, Owen, a student at the University of California at Davis, has an interesting summer job—working with the rangers at Point Reyes National Seashore.

A SECOND CHILD, a daughter named Victoria Lynn, was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Victor B. Levit of Belvedere. The baby's brother is Carson Victor Levit, two years old.

MRS. MERVIN D. COLE of Tiburon and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Cole Jr., have just returned from a 10-day trip to Alaska. They flew to Vancouver, where they boarded the ship "Prince George" to sail the inside passage, stopping at such ports as Juneau, Skagway and Ketchikan. A highlight of the tour was a side trip by train to Lake Bennet. At the town of Carcross, they had a hearty luncheon, typical of meals served to Alaskan miners. Piece de resistance was "mule meat!"

EIGHTY GUESTS have accepted invitations to Sunday's reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dubs of Sausalito on their golden wedding anniversary at the Sausalito Women's Club. Co-hosts, Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Dubs Jr. of San Rafael and Alan Furber of Cloverdale, will welcome relatives and friends of the couple from 2 until 5 p.m. with champagne punch, cake and a buffet served. The senior Dubses were married 50 years ago at St. Patrick's Church in San Francisco with Mr. Dubs' cousin officiating. Charles Dubs was employed with Northwestern and Pacific Railroad for 48 years. His wife is the former Ruth McNeill of Sausalito. Mrs. Isabel McNeill of Mill Valley, Mrs. Dubs' mother, will attend as will grandchildren Alan Furber Jr. and Craig Furber of Cloverdale, Mrs. Jack Hiatt of Cloverdale and Karen and Charles E. Dubs of San Rafael.

SPENDING THE SUMMER in Europe is Jill Scott, daughter of Mrs. Helen Scott of Novato. Jill, who was graduated from Novato High School this month, accompanied a group of students through a program sponsored by the University of Michigan. She will spend her first 15 days on an organized tour and then work the summer months at a resort hotel in Davas, Switzerland. Before coming home Sept. 15, the students will have 10 days in which to tour the various areas.

A FAMILY GATHERING of five generations and celebration of a 64th wedding anniversary drew nearly 50 guests to a buffet party at Gerstle Park in San Rafael Sunday afternoon. Hostess was Mrs. Charles James of San Rafael, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mercier of San Francisco, celebrated their anniversary. Attending were Mrs. Mercier's sister, Mrs. B. B. Helmick of Menlo Park; and the Mercier daughters, Mrs. James, Mrs. Walter Hughes of Fresno and Mrs. Rozelma Mulligan of San Francisco. Their three sons are in Chicago and Nebraska and could not attend. Others attending were relatives and a few close friends. TELEVISION REVIEW

Vic Damone Is No Dean Martin

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—"The Dean Martin Summer Show" bowed in on NBC-TV last night, replacing the Dean Martin autumn-winter-and-spring show. Actually, Dean Martin is not the star of the Dean Martin summer show. In fact, he's not even a regular. Vic Damone is the star of the Dean Martin summer show. You could tell right away. No boozing. Nothing like that.

PLEASANT SHOW

The Dean Martin show without Dean Martin is just about what you'd expect from any program that doesn't have Dean Martin—that is, it is a bit more earthbound. It is pleasant enough, all right, and there are nice people on it, like Damone and Carol Lawrence and Gail Martin, who is Dean Martin's daughter and who sings with an amiable lack of pretension. The only thing is that Dean Martin is a sort of built-in self-starter for any occasion, wheras his replacement show necessarily has to depend on the director.

So we had plenty of nice singing, and a few amusing moments from George Jessel and the Clair and McMahon comedy team, but in between all those things—which is the time in which Dean Martin shines—we had the usual variety show approach, meaning the forced dialogue, the forced introductions, and — well — you get the idea. In short, all the things that Dean Martin makes fun of grandly were offered dead straight.

DAMONE'S STYLE

Well, that's the complaint, and there's nothing that couldn't have been corrected with a bit of inspiration from the director—because, after all, this is the summer television season, when we're supposed to be trying all things loose and free and unfettered—well, reasonably unfettered. Right? A bit of inspiration, and all that natural, likeable talent would have been outstanding, maybe.

Still, it is always nice to hear Damone sing, because he is a real good singer and Carol Lawrence is a plus any time, even if she was forced to do one of those inane, pointless Hollywood production numbers that you wonder about—I mean, how anybody, with all the things in the world to select from, happened to come up with this one. In this case, it was a pirate number, Miss Lawrence being a lady pirate, and what any of what she had to do had in common with the rest of the show is beyond me.

So that is something about "The Dean Martin Summer Show" without Dean Martin, who will be away for about three months. And as you can tell, the Dean Martin show with Dean Martin is better. So keep those letters coming, folks.

Wind And Fog Keeping Hippie Invasion Down

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A widely predicted "summer invasion" of hippies may have been a false alarm. Police say they're leaving almost as fast as they arrive.

They can't take the city's cold, windy, foggy summer weather, says Police Capt. Dan Kiely, because most of them wanted to sleep out.

The result is that the population is remaining stable in the Haight-Ashbury District, where long beards and sandals abound. It ranges modestly between 3,000 and 4,000.

Adoption Only

The Independent-Journal incorrectly reported Wednesday that Sausalito City Council Tuesday night passed a resolution authorizing the County Housing Authority to lease private housing for low-income families in Sausalito. The council agreed to adopt such a resolution, but asked City Atty. Leland H. Jordan to prepare it for a future council meeting.

Grant Use Clarified

The Independent-Journal incorrectly reported Wednesday that federal grants totaling $750,000 for reference material exchange would permit inclusion on San Francisco Library in the North Bay Cooperative Library. The grants will link the two libraries' reference services, but will not bring San Francisco library into the cooperative.

Don Hawken Pulls Off Golf Surprise

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael and Arne Dokka of Studio City, two of the favorites in the State Amateur Golf Tournament at Pebble Beach, today are sitting on the sidelines, or wherever losers sit, by a combined total of 17 feet, two feet for Cerrudo's missed putt and 15 feet for a putt that beat Dokka.

And 17-year-old Don Hawken is battling away today, trying to continue his amazing success in one, possibly two matches. He was to meet Jim Rheim in today's first of two rounds which will whittle the field down to four by the end of the day.

Hawken, the youngest survivor in the tournament, yesterday upset Dokka's medalist applecart with a 230-foot wood shot and a 15-foot putt for an eagle on the 20th hole.

Cerrudo squandered a four-stroke lead over stock-broker Bud Bradley and lost, one-up, on the 19th hole when he missed a two-foot putt for a par while Bradley dropped a four-footer.

Cerrudo, Walker Cupper and runnerup in the British Amateur, appeared to be in like Flynn as he birdied three of the first seven holes. Bradley, 30 years old to Cerrudo's 22, was four back after the first eight holes.

Bradley finally caught up on the 17th hole. Both parred the 18th but it was all over on the 19th where Cerrudo's putt rimmed the hole while Bradley's ball plunked from four feet out.

Dokka, the medalist leader in qualifying rounds, had a two-stroke lead over Hawken at one time. But then came the deciding hole, the 497-yard second hole, 20th of the match.

Hawken fired a 230-yard wood shot, 15 feet from the hole and dropped in the putt for an eagle while Dokka was getting a birdie and the feeling that you can't win for losing.

RAY LEACH WILL BE OUT FOR REVENGE

Ray Leach of Novato, 17-year-old Northern California junior golf champion, will meet Southern California titlist Gary Sanders of Buena Park tomorrow and Sunday at Pebble Beach in a 36-hole challenge match for the state junior crown.

Last year Sanders beat Leach for the National Junior Championship and the Novato High School senior will be out for revenge.

Unimpeachable Source Proved To Be Just That

SCOOP—Last week's coin-flipping ceremony between the 49ers and Raiders to determine site and date of their first inter-league game next fall was anti-climatic to readers of this column.

So the Raiders won the toss of the coin and elected to play the game at Oakland Coliseum on Sunday, Sept. 3. Big deal! So what else is new?

How boring it must have been to you Bunkies who already knew all that after reading the following scoop printed here in the Monday, Jan. 30, 1967 edition:

"As the big time columnists would report, I have it from an unimpeachable source that the 49ers will meet the Raiders at Oakland Coliseum on Sunday, Sept. 3. . . ."

He'd Be Great At Races

Frankly, this is rather errie and shakes me up a little. How in the world did Mr. Unimpeachable know on JAN. 30 that the coin to be flipped on JUNE 16 would come up tails?

And now if you'll excuse me, I'm going to take Mr. Unimpeachable to the racetrack.

YANKEE CLIPPER—Joe DiMaggio will be on hand Sunday when six Marin teams open the brand new Joe DiMaggio League at San Anselmo's Memorial Park. The high school age boys will play three games and DiMag has promised to be there at 1 p.m., if you'd like to see the great Yankee Clipper and perhaps get his autograph.

Tuesday, just three days short of a year later, she broke the same leg again.

Cracked her husband: "We're going to make this an annual event. Next year we're going to hold it at Candlestick Park and charge admission. It'll be a big production with a big cast."

AND SPEAKING of such: Floyd Longley of San Rafael, first aid advisor for the Far West Division of the National Ski Patrol System, is in Denver this weekend to participate in the annual convention of the NSPS.

Rouse, Chuvalo, Fullmer Tune Up For Title Fight

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — Top-ranked light heavyweight Roger Rouse, Canadian heavyweight champion George Chuvalo and middleweight Don Fullmer tuned up last night for hoped-for title shots.

Rouse, of Anaconda, Mont., who will get the next crack at Dick Tiger's light heavyweight crown, won a unanimous decision over Bobby Rason of Tucson, Ariz., after knocking him down three times.

Chuvalo, who will meet undefeated Joe Frazier July 19 in New York's Madison Square Garden, thoroughly mauled Archie Ray, the Arizona heavyweight champion. Chuvalo knock-Ray out toward the end of the second round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

QUICK KAYO

Fullmer, from West Jordan, Utah, didn't have time to work up a sweat as he knocked out Louis Garduno of Las Vegas, Nev., 54 seconds into the second round of another scheduled 10-round bout.

Rouse, 174½, opened big, flooring Rason twice in the first round. "I expected to get him in the second," Rouse said after the bout, "but I just couldn't get to him." Rason, 174, also was down in the fourth.

Chuvalo, who weighed in at 217 pounds to 205 for his opponent pressed Ray and carried the fight to him through the first round. In the second round, Chuvalo's stinging left staggered Ray.

The Canadian then went for the midsection and decked Ray at the end of the second round. Ray rolled outside the ring holding his stomach.

"I had to have a quick knockout," Chuvalo said. "I just couldn't let him get in a lucky punch and maybe cut me."

DISAPPOINTED

Fullmer obviously was disappointed with his match. He walked away from the prostrate Garduno shaking his head. Many of the approximately 4,500 fans agreed and rocked the Adams Field House on the University of Montana campus with a peal of boos.

Fullmer, ranked No. 1 middleweight by the World Boxing Association, is hoping for a match with the winner of the Nino Benevenuti-Emile Griffith title bout scheduled for sometime in September.

Chuvalo said he plans to be in his best physical condition for the upcoming Frazier fight. "I've got a special plan — which I obviously can't divulge — to use in that bout."

Rouse said his bout with Tiger probably won't be until mid-September and added, "It may be in New York or Las Vegas."

Chuvalo, an 11-year professional veteran, ran his knockout string to 40. He's won 46, lost 13 and fought two draws.

Fullmer grabbed his 41st win in 53 bouts.

Who's Wayne Yates? Asks Arnold Palmer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two of golfdom's greats, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, were surprised by first-round developments in the $103,500 Cleveland Open.

"Who?" asked Palmer, after he was told that Wayne Yates was the 18-hole leader.

The popular Pennsylvania pro admitted he did not know who Yates was after the 25-year-old Atlanta performer carded a four-under-par 66 in yesterday's first round.

That gave Yates, in his second year as a tour regular, a one-stroke edge over Palmer, veteran Dan Sikes and young Dick Lotz.

But Palmer figures the scores are going to get better on the par 70, 6,611-yard Aurora Country Club layout.

MAYBE 60

"Somebody will shoot 65 before the week is over . . . maybe even 60," Palmer, the tour's leading money-winner, predicted.

Nicklaus, who played erratically and admitted he was bothered by the wet course, disagreed.

"Sure someone can shoot 60, if he quits at 14," the power hitter from Columbus, Ohio, quipped.

Nicklaus, who won the U.S. Open last weekend with a brilliant display of precision golf, staggered home with a 72 yesterday in a round that included five bogeys.

And Jack evidently was surprised that two dozen players broke par.

"I think the scores are as low as they are going to get," Nicklaus said. "I thought after practicing nine holes Wednesday that the winning score would be 280. But, obviously, 280 won't win it."

Yates, who rang up six birdies and two bogeys, has earned only $3,781 this year.

GOOD SHAPE

"My whole game was in good shape," said the rangy Georgian, whose best previous effort was a tie for 11th in the Memphis Open.

Two strokes back of the leader going into today's second round were Dow Finsterwald, Bob Stanton, Lionel Hebert, Raymond Floyd, Gardner Dickinson, Bob Charles and former

McCormick Vs. Sutton Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—So far as the San Francisco Giants are concerned, they've had their fill of Hank Aaron and the Atlanta Braves.

The Giants were to arrive here this afternoon for the start of a three-game series with the Los Angeles Dodgers, a team they've mastered in five of six 1967 meetings.

By comparison, San Francisco has lost seven of 10 games with the power-packed Braves, who swept a doubleheader 2-1 and 6-4 at Candlestick Park yesterday.

Aaron was the biggest nuisance. His two-run homer in the eighth inning of the second game snapped a 4-4 tie. Earlier, he scored from second base on an infield single by Clete Boyer to give Atlanta a 4-3 lead in the sixth.

The Braves' superstar also contributed heavily to Phil Niekro's 6-hit first-game victory with a run-scoring double. Woody Woodward's double knocked in the other Atlanta run.

Willie Mays' 10th homer of the season in the sixth inning averted a shutout. It was the 552nd of Mays' career.

Niekro, now 3-3, weakened in the ninth with two outs. Pinch-hitter Willie McCovey walked and Jim Davenport stroked a pinch single. But newly acquired Dick Groat, batting for losing pitcher Gaylord Perry, grounded out to end the game.

TOUGH LUCK

Perry, now 5-8, deserved a better fate. He struck out 10 and walked 2, but one of the passes was damaging.

Denis Menke opened the fourth with a walk and scored on Woodward's double for the eventual winning run.

Mack Jones' two-run homer gave Atlanta a 2-1 lead in the fourth inning of the second game but the Giants fought back for a tie on three separate occasions —the last when Ollie Brown's double made it 4-4 in the seventh. Brown had four hits in the twin bill.

Reliever Frank Linzy, now 3-4, allowed Aaron's 18th homer of the season to give the Braves a sweep of the three-game series. Claude Raymond, 2-5, was the winner in relief.

McCORMICK HURLS

Lefthander Mike McCormick (6-3) will oppose Don Sutton (4-8) tonight in the opener of the Dodger series. Juan Marichal (10-5) and Joe Gibbon (3-1) will hurl the final two games for the Giants against Bill Singer (1-3) and Don Drysdale (6-7).

The Giants yesterday sold outfielder Bill Sorrell back to the San Diego club of the Pacific Coast League to make room on the roster for Dick Groat, acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies.

Dodger Relief Is Not What It Used To Be

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Everyone complains about the Los Angeles Dodgers' lack of hitting, but erratic pitching is the main reason the 1966 National League champions are currently in eighth place.

Last year, Dodger pitchers allowed an average of 3.02 runs per game. This year, the average for the first 65 games is 4.14.

To be even more specific, there has been a sharp decline in the caliber of Dodger relief pitching. Phil Regan, Ron Perranoski and Bob Miller, the big three of the bull pen, had a combined record of 24 victories, 23 saves and only 10 losses last season. This year they're 4-11 with only 7 saves.

OSTEEN SHELLED

The Dodgers trailed by only 3-2 last night when St. Louis knocked starter Claude Osteen from the mound in the seventh inning. But a throwing error by Miller let in two unearned runs in the eighth inning and the Cards went on to hand Los Angeles its second straight defeat, 7-2.

Though their offense leaves much to be desired, the Dodgers are scoring about as often this year as they did in winning the pennant last season. They are averaging 3.63 runs a game, compared to 3.73 in 1966.

WEAK HITTER

Ron Fairly and Wes Parker hit run-scoring singles in the fourth inning to give Osteen (9-7) a 2-0 lead. But the Cards won the game in the sixth inning after Ed Spiezio hit a two-run single with two out. Dal Maxvill, the Cards' weakest-hitting regular, broke the tie with a single. Cardinal left-hander Steve Carlton (5-4) pitched a six-hitter to give St. Louis its sixth straight victory over the Dodgers. The Cardinals have won nine of the 11 meetings of the teams this year.

So something of a damper has been put on the weekend series here between the Dodgers and their arch-rivals, the San Francisco Giants.

150 Athletes Enter Novato's Ridge Run

One hundred and fifty runners are expected for tomorrow's fourth annual Novato Ridge Run, part of Western Week, with the Marin Athletic Club trying for its fourth straight team title.

Start and finish line for the 6.87-mile cross-country race is the Novato fire station. It begins at 8:30 a.m. The run is under sanction of the Pacific Association, Amateur Athletic Union.

Record for the run is 38 minutes and 4 seconds, set by Marin A. C. member Daryl Beardall in 1965. Last year's winner was Carl Jensen, also of the Marin A. C. Jensen, now in the Army, covered the distance in 39:39.

Three trophies and 75 medals will go to individual winners, with team trophy going to the team which has the five fastest times. Special awards will go to the high school boy with the best time and to the oldest runner.

A Teen-Ager's First Car

Beware Of Those 'Roadside Agents'

Fifth of a series

By HENRY GREGOR FELSEN

Where is the best place to buy your car?

Should you go to a new car dealer who also handles a large supply of used cars?

He has the garage and the mechanixs to put his used cars in top shape; he has a reputation to maintain and an expensive dealership to keep going. Surely, he'd want to treat you right and keep you as a customer.

What about the dealer who handles only used cars? Since he specializes in used cars, wouldn't he be more likely to select the best, so he can compete with the new car dealer?

How about the private individual who advertises his car for sale? He's selling his own car, so he'd know all about it. Besides, buying directly from the original seller, there'd be no dealer profit added to the price.

That's not the right question.

The question is not where, but from whom, will you get the best deal on the best car.

I have read scores of articles and tens of thorsands of words of advice on how to buy a used car. Most of the articles gave detailed, step-by-step procedures for testing brakes, looking for hidden rust spots, checking out transmission, etc.

This was supposed to be the way the experts shopped, and if you did the same thing, you would also be shopping like an expert.

When I was about to begin this book, I went to see an expert. He's a man who buys used cars at auctions for a large dealership. I asked what his technique was for buying a good car.

"The first thing I do," he told me, "is to fond out who's selling the car. If it comes from certain dealers I know, I won't touch the car, no matter what it looks like.

"If it comes from a dealer I know is honest, all I ask is that he guarantee the block, transmission, drive train, and rear end. Any other troubles that show up, we can fix easily enough in our own shop."

Want to shop for your car like an expert? Then the first thing you'll do is shop for a dealer.

You are not buying a car from a place; you are doing business with other human beings. And regardless of what you buy, or where, the deal will only be as good as the people who make it — you being the person you are and the dealer the person he is.

DiMaggio Leads VIPs To Victory

Reno's VIPs won as usual in their annual softball battle with the KSFO No-Stars last night. The VIP'S took a 15-2 win before 5,108 fans in the Cow Palace.

Hall of Fame outfielder Joe DiMaggio led the VIPs to victory.

Exciting Start In AAU Track Meet

BAKERSFIELD (AP) — In tonight's national AAU track and field competition, Jim Ryun, Tommie Smith, Bob Seagren and Randy Matson are likely to generate the excitement if not the heat that followed Jimmy Hines' narrow victory over Charlie Greene in their gripping 100-yard dash.

Hines, the Texas Southern flash, nipped Greene of Nebraska at the tape in 9.3 seconds last night in the most exciting race of the opening session of these annual championships.

But Greene, the defending champion, was unconvinced. From behind his sunglasses the outspoken speedster asked: "What do you have to do to win? It shouldn't have even gone to a photo. I beat him at the tape."

Hines, who beat Greene last month at Modesto, setting up their confrontation, saw it differently. "I got a good start," he said, "and I thought I won in the last few yards."

Viewing the photo, Greene conceded that the result could have been a tie, but then he protested that Hines had broken from the starting blocks before the gun.

The verdict stood, however, and Hines now faces the challenge of Tommie Smith in tonight's 220. Smith the San Jose State sensation, holds the world record of 20.0 for the distance, but Hines beat him three weeks ago in Los Angeles.

Ryun coasted to a 4:07.5 clocking in a mile semifinal and the Kansas sophomore is an overwhelming favorite against veteran Jim Grelle, Oregon's twosome of Roscoe Divine and Dave Wilborn, and Martin Liquori, of the Essex, N.J., Catholic High school.

Just how close Ryun intends to run to his world mark of 3:51.3 is problematical because he hasn't indicated just when he'll zero in on his all-time best.

Matson, the Texas A&M muscleman, passed up the discus to concentrate on the shotput, where he holds the pending world record of 71 feet, 7 inches. Seagren, from Southern California, will shoot for 17-8 or better in the pole vault after clearing 17-7 for a world record two weeks ago.

Willie Davenport, Southern University's powerful hurdler, easily outsped a formidable field in the 120 high hurdles last night to clock a 13.3 against a 3-mile-an-hour breeze. Davenport won this meet last year with 13.3 for the AAU record.

Wan Gerry Lindren, who seems to lose weight and height as the years pass, charged away from his only opposition, Lou Scott, on the gun lap and won going away in the three-mile. The Washington State star's time was a good 13:10.6.

Not all the veterans won, however. Long jumper Ralph Boston lost his duel with Jerry Proctor, the high school phenomenon from Pasadena, Calif. Proctor leaped 26-5¾ to edge Boston's 26-1¼.

Ed Burke of the Southern California Striders set an American mark in the hammer throw with a toss of 235-11. Hal Connolly, not competing here, held the former record of 233-9½.

Ron Whitney, also representing the Striders, the 440 intermediate hurdles in 50.3; Gary Carlsen, a Southern California strongboy competing unattached, threw the discus 205-10, and high jumper Otis Burrell, also unattached, cleared 7-¼ to take home other national titles in the opening session.

U. S. Open king Ken Venturi.

The veteran Finsterwald, a PGA winner in 1958, was four under par going into the final two holes but took bogeys on both.

Masters champion Gay Brewer was in contention with 69, and Billy Casper stood at 70.

R. H. Sikes, the defending titlist, carded a 73 while Julius Boros, second leading money winner on the tour, skied to a 74 after suffering a triple bogey 7 on the 15th hole.

The field of 141 pros and two amateurs was to be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after today's round.

Jim Gentile Still Has High Hopes

SAN DIEGO (AP) — There's still plenty of glitter left in Diamond Jim Gentile.

Gentile, whose sparkling season was 1961 when he slugged 46 home runs and batted .302 for Baltimore, has been banished to the minor leagues the past two seasons.

The Houston Astros sent him to Oklahoma City of the PCL in 1966 after Jim's temper flared over an umpire's call and he broke his bat on home plate.

Cleveland brought him up late in the season and used him as a pinchhitter. Then Philadelphia acquired the 215-pound, 6-foot-4 first baseman.

The Phillies needed a first baseman because Bill White was on the injured list, but Gentile was given walking papers.

San Diego bought Jim's contract and, after some thought, Gentile reported for duty.

"I thought I could still play in the big leagues," said Jim. "I didn't think that after seven and a half years in the majors I'd be sent down."

Gentile doesn't believe Phillies Manager Gene Mauch gave him much of an opportunity.

"I played four straight (exhibition) games this spring and didn't get a hit," he said. "Then I found myself on the bench. Mauch didn't give me much of a chance."

Gentile is as proud of his fielding as he is of his hitting and he believes Mauch damaged his reputation with the glove.

"Mauch had me classified as another Dick Stuart with the glove," Jim said. "And I led the American League in fielding one year."

Gentile has found a place with the Padres, despite a dismal start of three hits in his first 37 times at bat.

His batting average has been steadily rising, recently to .270, and he's averaged about one home run for every nine times at the plate—15 in his first 45 games.

His temper?

"I had that down pretty good until that thing in Houston. Something like that is a rude awakening, but it's helped me quite a bit."

Jim might bark about an occasional called strike. But he said he's trying to keep cool.

Having just turned 33, he believes he has several good years left.

"I've never felt so good in my life—except for that injury," he said. "Playing every day helped my confidence.

"I hope by swinging a good bat someone will give me another chance. I'm looking forward to it."

SEE YOU IN THE WORLD SERIES?

Eddie Stanky, manager of the American League leading Chicago White Sox, makes a mock threatening gesture at Leo Durocher, manager of the surprising Chicago Cubs, now saddled in third place in the National League. The two teams met in a benefit game in Chicago last night. Could it be possible the two teams will meet again in October? It would be the sports story of the year, since the Cubs were a pre-season pick for last place by most "experts."

It May Be Last Amateur Wimbledon

LONDON (AP) — British tennis officials are all ready to start lobbying in a new move to make Wimbledon an open tennis tournament — with pros playing alongside the cream of the world's amateurs.

Britain long has been the leader in the campaign for open tennis. This time they believe victory could be won, at least for an experimental period.

Wimbledon starts next Monday. The British Lawn Tennis Association means to see that it's the last Wimbledon restricted to amateurs.

While the fans pack the center court or eat strawberries and cream on the lawns, officials of the big tennis powers will be thrashing out their differences behind closed doors.

The International Lawn Tennis Federation is due to hold its annual meeting at Luxembourg July 12. A two-thirds vote is necessary to put open tennis on the world circuit.

MOST VOTES

The major tennis powers — Britain, United States, Australia and France — have 12 votes each while most of the other countries have only three.

The British believe the differences between the major powers can be resolved.

The United States has withdrawn its previous opposition to open tennis and has told its delegates to the ILTF they should vote according to their consciences.

The British are heartened by the news that the U.S. delegation is being headed by Bob Kelleher, president of USLTA. He is known to be in favor of open tennis. But another delegate, Larry Baker, has said he is opposed to it until the professional players are organized on different lines.

EXPERIMENTS

Australia, which has opposed open tennis, has said it will agree to an experimental period if Britain drops a clause limiting prize money to $2,800.

Sources close to the British LTA said Britain will be ready to give way on that point.

France still objects to open tennis if there's going to be a wide difference in prize money for professionals.

An LTA official said: "It seems we are all aiming in the same direction. It will be surprising if we can't come to a common agreement on these few points."

South Africa is believed to be solidly behind open tennis, but the Communist countries, led by Russia, are opposed to it. So are many small countries who fear their players might be squeezed out of the world tournaments if professionals are brought in.

Meanwhile the Australian challenge at Wimbledon was emphasized by yesterday's results in the London Grass Court Championships at Queen's Club — the last warmup event before the big one. Three Australians —Owen Davidson, John Newcombe and John Cooper—fought through to the semifinals along with Britain's Roger Taylor.

Nancy Richey, of San Angelo, Tex., kept the hopes of the United States alive in the women's singles. The other women's semifinalists are Judy Tegart and Kerry Melville of Australia and Annette Vanzyt of South Africa. Miss Richey defeated Lesley Turner of Australia, 6-3, 6-1 to reach the round of four.

Pitching Wins Pennants And Injuries Lose Them

Pitching wins pennants. It's an old baseball cliche. But, like most generalities, it ignores a lot of other ingredients that make a pennant.

Perhaps it is the phraseology of the cliche that is improper. What actually is meant is without pitching—forget it. Without Sandy Koufax, the Dodgers are forgetting it this season and the indefinite future until they develop another 20-game winner.

Pitching does provide the main fabric out of which pennants are fashioned. But they still are woven into finished products only with additional help.

OF COURSE, the 1967 National League pennant still is in the making and the main work on it won't begin until mid-August. Everything that has been done thus far merely is preparatory work.

Occasionlly, however, early season preparations can be most frustrating for dilligent workers, such as the Cincinnati Reds. Their pitchers were doing their jobs admirably, particularly Gary Nolan, the Oroville rookie whiz, notwithstanding the two defeats the Giants tacked on him.

THEN, SUDDENLY, several Reds were felled by injuries. Four regulars — Chico Cardenas, Pete Rose, Deron Johnson and Tommy Harper — were sidelined in rapid succession. And two very important members of the pitching staff — Jim Maloney and Bill McCool — joined the list of walking wounded.

The fact that the Reds now are hurting severely doesn't necessarily mean that they won't be in contention in mid-August but what happened to them during the past fortnight points up another important part of any pennant — luck.

Just when the 1959 pennant race was getting down to its important mid-August stage, the Giants lost their all-important third baseman, Ed Bailey, who later was to become a Giant himself, decommissioned Jim Davenport in a home plate crackup at Cincinnati.

The loss of just one key defensive player cost the Giants enough games at third base to turn their 1959 pennant dream into a nightmare.

There are innumerable other cases of injuries costing pannants. So baseball has another cliche. Pennants are lost on the training room floor. And that one is just as true as the first one about pitching winning pennants.

THE TRITONS ARE COMING

Tritons such as these, sails billowing in the wind, will be racing again for the second National Triton Regatta to be held July 1-4 on San Francisco Bay waters. The regatta will be sponsored by the San Francisco Yacht Club of Belvedere, the oldest yacht club on the Pacific Coast.

San Rafael's Braves Host Santa Rosans

San Rafael Braves take on Santa Rosa tonight in a home game and then take to the road for a three-game series with Fallon, Nev., tomorrow and Sunday in Western Semi-pro Baseball Association action.

Tonight's game, starting at 8 o'clock, will be played at Albert Field in San Rafael. It will make up one of the three washed out games scheduled between San Rafael and Santa Rosa in the first weekend of the WBA schedule June 3-4.

Leadoff batter Ron Jeffries is carrying the highest average among the San Rafael regulars, hitting safely 12 times in 23 at bats. That comes out to a fat .522.

The Braves are hitting .350 as a team, with regulars Ron Gasper (.409), Jerry Bosch (.385), Bob Dowd (.381), Doug Wilson (.333) and Bruce McNevin (.300) following Jeffries.

Fallon is still looking for its first league win. Besides the three losses already to San Rafael, the Neveda nine has dropped three games each to Grand Junction, Colo., and Eureka.

Woman Is Leader In Salmon Derby

Mildred Pratz of San Rafael and George Mathews of Novato are in the lead for grand prizes in the salmon and striped bass derbies being sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Southern Marin.

Mrs. Pratz leads the salmon derby with a 36-pound, 4-ounce fish, hoping for the prize of a seven-day vacation in Nassau and Jamaica. Mathew's 36-pounder is in front in the striper contest, where top prize is an eight-day trip to La Paz, Mexico.

The derbies continue for five more months, with tickets available at Marin County sports and bait shops. Winners in the fourth month of the derbies:

Salmon — Mildred Pratz, San Rafael, 36 pounds, 4 ounces; William Lemons, Novato, 34-4; Al Pellzari, Palo Alto, 33-0; Frank Benkner, San Francisco, 32-4; Clarence Branesky, Santa Rosa, 32-0.

Striped bass — Andrew Wurz, San Anselmo, 17-9; Robert Carlton, Mill Valley, 16-2; Cliff Brock, Corte Madera, 9-0; Pat Brock, Corte Madera, 4-0.

(Pat Brock also won a $10 gift certificate for the smallest legal fish entered, a 3-pound, 2-ounce salmon.)

THIS WEEKEND'S minus tides will furnish some top flight action for Marin County's abalone pickers and clam diggers — so go get 'em.

The status is quo on local fishing as reported here yesterday. Salmon trolling outside the Golden Gate is still very good with the best bet for king-size chinooks in deep water near the Farallones.

Striped bass fishing continues in the doldrums but should pick up next Wednesday. Sturgeon fishing is still stealing the spotlight in Suisun Bay and the Delta region is yielding some nice catches of catfish.

TEEN-AGER'S FIRST CAR

'EZ Terms' Deceiving, They May Be Expensive

Ask.

You must know dozens of people who have bought cars from numerous dealers. How do they think they were treated? What kind of service do they get once the car is bought? Would they go back to the same dealer for their next car?

Did you ever have a newspaper route? Perhaps one of your customers was in the automobile or garage business. If you were a good paper boy, you can visit with him and ask his opiniom and advice.

Perhaps some of your friends in school have fathers who are in the automotive line and would help you.

It isn't a question of honest dealers versus dishonest ones, but which of the honest dealers will treat you best.

What about buying from private individuals?

Which private individual?

I have bought several cars from individuals, and each has been a good one. In each case, I bought from people who were honest, and who told me as much as they knew about the true condition of the car.

COLLEGIATES

Sometimmes, you can get a good cars from a boy who is going to a college where freshmen can't own cars, or from a boy who is going into service and has to part with his beloved car.

But just because cars are advertised for sale for these reasons is no guarantee that the ad speaks the truth, or that the car is any good.

There are some people who advertise a car for sale as private individuals, but they are really in business. They buy a cheap car — very often one that has been wrecked and rebuilt — and advertise at as their own, "must sacrifice."

When that car is sold, they buy another and repeat the process.

Some states limit the number of cars you can sell in a year before you have to get a dealer's license, but licensed dealers can push some of their cars through willing "private" parties.

Finally, among the people who sell cars, are the ones you must avoid at any cost. They are the one other car dealers refer to as "roadside agents."

Sometimes, they have flashy establishments and high-priced cars, but the ones in your price range probably operate out of more modest headquarters.

The roadside agent sells cars, but he is not primarily in the auto business. He is in the financing and repossession business, and the cars are merely bait.

ROADSIDE AGENTS

Often, a roadside agent can be recognized by the fact that his cars seem so much cheaper than other, similar cars at other dealerships.

Also, it is so much easier to do business with him. He makes it so easy to buy, is not worried about your credit rating, and can protect you from the nasty banks by lending you the money out of his own generous pocket.

These are "deallers" who sell you a car, take a down payment, load you with fees and finance charges, and even include insurance and license in the loan.

Once you are saddled with these charges, they may even hope you can't afford to keep the car, s it can be repossessed in a few months. Here is how that works:

Joe Slick, the roadside agent, buys junky car at auction for $50. He puts a price tag of $200 on the car and offers it for $25 down and $5 a week to Pete Poor.

That seems like an easy way to buy a car to Pete, and if anything happens, he hasn't lost very much.

REPOSSESSED

Pete keeps the car for three months, runs out of money, and the car is repossessed. Joe Slick now has Pete's $85, plus the balance of the debt still due, plus the car

Joe then pockets the money and puts the car up for sale again, for the same $200 and on the same E/Z terms. When he sells the car again, he hopes the new buyer will also run into trouble in a few months and have to give up the car — which he will sell a third time.

A handful of "shot" cars that are sold over and over again, and Joe Slick is in business for a very few dollars. He may gross $400 or $500 from one $50 car before somebody manages to keep it (paying $5 a week forever), or the car has to be junked out.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Gains Tax May Deter Switching

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I own 700 Walgreen, 250 Central & South West, 300 Mobil, 100 El Paso Natural Gas, and 250 Tenneco. What are your comments and what do you suggest as an addition al investment? I am 80 years old." H.S.

A. It must be a source of satisfaction to reach your notable age, with little to worry about in your investment list. You hold pretty sound stocks from the standpoint of income, and in the first three instances with growth potential as well. You seem disproportionately heavy in Walgreen, where your holdings are now worth $35,000. I'm going to assume, though, that any sale for diversification would entail a capital gains tax sufficient to deter you, and I make no recommendation along these lines.

For new investment I suggest Interstate Bakeries, where a 2-for-1 split has been proposed. The dividend is to be lifted to the equivalent of $1.80 on the present stock which would bring the yield to 4.6 per cent.

Q. "Why are you against low-priced stocks, when Avon Products, now 101, sold at 15⅜ in 1952 and IBM, recently 460, was at 10 in 1952?" G. B.

A. If you will allow me to say so, your question contains misconceptions which I would like very much to straighten out. I am not against low-priced stocks provided sufficient study has been done on them to warrant purchase. This is rarely the case. Low-priced stocks are generally bought simply because they are low priced, and not for any perceptible value.

Secondly, stocks in 1952 were in the very early stages of the greatest bull market in history. Fifteen years later, with the Dow Average up 300 per cent, good low-priced values are infinitely harder to detect. Finally, the stocks you mention could not have been bought in 1952 at the prices you quote, since the latter have been adjusted to reflect stock splits and stock dividends. The 1952 low for IBM was actually 186, and on Avon was 21.

TOKYO GETS FIRST SKYSCRAPER

Now under construction in a city noted for earthquakes is this 36-story, 482-foot Kasumigaseki Mitsui Building in Tokyo, twice as tall as any existing building in Japan. Scheduled for completion early next year, the structure will feature a five-floor basement and a bank of 34 elevators. Until 1964 when legal restrictions were removed, no building in Japan was higher than 11 stories and 102 feet above the ground. Maximum height is now 60 stories.

Gainers In Front At Closing

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market today closed with gainers outnumbering losers by a narrow margin.

It was another cautious session.

Lower-priced issues were in the forefront.

Volume for the first four hours was 6.46 million shares compared with 6.69 million for the like period yesterday.

Cutting down their earlier margin, gains outnumbered losses by about 6 to 5.

Stocks perked up a bit on news that President Johnson was meeting with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin but as their conference got under way Wall Street again adopted a watch-and-wait attitude. This was heightened by usual caution before a weekend.

A. J. Industries again was the volume leader, opening late on a block of 85,200 shares and holding a 1-point gain.

General Electric, up 2, was another delayed opener. It is introducing a time-sharing program on computers.

American Broadcasting fell about 3 points and International Telephone was up a fraction. The proposed merger of the companies was approved by the Federal Communications Commission.

IBM gained 3, Control Data 4½. Gains of 2 or more were made by Raytheon and Continental Copper.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

THE WEEK IN BUSINESS

Bright 1967 Being Predicted For World Airways Of Oakland

A substantial increase in revenues and net earnings for World Airways, Inc., Oakland, during 1967 was forecast at the company's first annual meeting in San Francisco this week.

Board chairman Edward J. Daly estimated this year's revenues will reach $75 million compared with the $50 million earned in 1966. Commercial revenues, he believes, will total $23 million — a 56 per cent increase from last year. Net earnings of $3.25 per share are held possible, compared with 1966 earnings of $1.88 per share.

World Airlines now has applications pending with the Civil Aeronautics Board for several tour plans in this country and abroad, for certification as a scheduled carrier in the Pacific and as a transcontinental carrier providing a "thrift" air service between California and the East Coast.

The Military Airlift Command has awarded the company a guaranteed minimum of $26 million for Pacific flights, compared with $13 million in the previous fiscal year.

KERN COUNTY LAND CO. has called a special shareholders meeting on July 17 to seek approval of a plan to combine with Tenneco, Inc., a corporation with some $3 billion in assets and with last year earnings of more than $108 million. Tenneco shareholders will vote July 11 on the proposal. Kern County Land would exchange its business and assets for shares of a new Tenneco cumulative convertible preference stock on a one-for-one basis.

BENDIX CORP. has completed acquisition of the assets of Macklin Co., Inc., Jackson, Miss. Macklin will operate as a wholly owned subsidiary. Meanwhile the product line, business and certain assets of the Eendix marine division located in Santa Ana are to be acquired by the Computer Equipment Corp., South El Monte for cash and CEC common stock. Closing date is set for July 3, subject to approval by regulatory agencies.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON CO. will construct a nuclear generating plant in Sant Barbara County. Ground is expected to be broken in 1972 and the plant should be in operation by 1975. The first of a possible six units will cost about $200 million and produce one million kilowatts. It will be the company's third large-scale venture in the nuclear generating field.

AMERICAN BUILDING MAINTENANCE INDUSTRIES, San Francisco has reported record high revenues of $24 million for the first six months ended April 30 — an increase of 7 per cent over the comparable period last year. Earnings per share were 52 cents, up 18 per cent from a year ago. Directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of 6.5 cents per share payable Aug. 11.

W. T. GRANT CO. has announced calendar year sales through May 31 of $307 million, up 2.98 per cent over the like period last year. May sales of $73.9 million were up 5.29 per cent over May, 1966. The company has 1,099 stores in operation.

SYSTRON-DONNER CORP., Concord stockholders have voted to acquire Datapulse, Inc. of Culver City, whose shareholders have also approved the union. This, together with Systron-Donner's recent acquisition of John E. Lindberg, Inc., Berkeley, is expected to result in consolidated net sales of over $20 million for the fiscal year ending July 31. Datapulse will be operated as a wholly-owned subsidiary.

Charter Airlines Crashing Into Air Of Big Profits

By JOHN CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's so-called supplemental airlines can trace their origins to surplus World War II planes and former military pilots looking for civilian jobs, but they expect this year to hit the rare air of big profits.

These are the modern versions of what once were called the nonscheduled or charter airlines. Their history makes unpleasant reading for some tourists who were stranded abroad when their company ran out of money.

A series of factors has changed the situation tremendgross more than $250 million. Their stock will be held widely by investors. And they will be among the first airlines to fly the 250-seat Douglas jets.

Among the chief factors that have changed the business in recent years are the war in Vietnam, the big growth in tourism, and a change of attitude by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Supplemental airlines are businesses very much dependent upon groups, which charter the craft and its crew for a specific period for a specific tour. But the CAB broadened the definition of a group last August.

Originally groups were defined as either groups of affinity, such as Rotary clubs or ski clubs, or single entities, such as dously and this year the nation's 13 supplementals expect to executives of a manufacturing company headed to a sales convention.

Now the CAB has decided that a group can be made up on individuals who have no more affinity than a desire to take the same type of vacation. Thus a tour operator can charter the plane and sell package tours to the general public, a business once restricted to the scheduled airlines.

Federal officials have helped in another way too. Because of the Vietnam war, the military has become one of the biggest customers of the supplementals, chartering the planes primarily to transport soldiers to Southeast Asia.

Last year, for instance, Trans International Airlines, one of the largest in the business, grossed $18,587,000 from military business and $12,363,000 from commercial customers, a 60-40 ratio. But the surge in tourism may change that. As many as two million American may travel to Europe this year, an increase of 400,000 from a year ago.

What is it that makes so many people want to travel aboard the supplementals? The big answer, of course, is money. The supplementals claim to be more than 30 per cent cheaper. They talk in terms of $160 round-trip New York-London flights and $112 for the San Francisco-New York roundtrip when the big Douglas jets go into service later this year.

The reason for the low price is obvious. The route carriers must fly whether they are full or not, and generally they are not. The "load factor" of scheduled lines is sometimes 60 per cent.

For the supplementals, the load factor is said to be better than 90 per cent. Because of the nature of their business, a trip isn't scheduled unless a full house, or near it, is assured.

A disadvantage to some is that the supplemental fares are part of a package that includes hotel accommodations, meals and sometimes sightseeing trips. They can be obtained only by buying the whole package.
